

It is about the same height above sea-level as the Yosemite. The valley is three miles long, extending, like the Yosemite, from east to west. The walls are not so high as those of the Yosemite, and everything is on a smaller scale.

There have been many improvements made in the modes of reaching the Yosemite valley since the visit was made of which an account has been given. By four different routes the wheels of carriages now carry the tourist from the terminus of the railroad to the door of any of the hotels in the valley. In consequence of improvements in roads it can be visited earlier in the season. The time required for the trip is also less. The valley can be reached in three days from San Francisco. But let no one who wishes to see the valley well stay there less than a week, and if the one week can be multiplied by four the visit will be all the more satisfactory.

The expense of the round trip from San Francisco and back is estimated at sixty dollars, though it would probably be best to allow a little margin for extras. There were three thousand visitors to the valley during the year 1875.

ANDERSON'S NORSE MYTHOLOGY; or The Religion of Our Forefathers.—Containing all the Myths of the Eddas carefully systematized and interpreted, with an Introduction, Vocabulary and Index.—By R. B. ANDERSON, A. M., Professor of Scandinavian Languages, in the University of Wisconsin. Crown 8vo, cloth, $2 50; full gilt, $3 00; half calf, $5 00.

"Professor Anderson has produced a monograph which may be regarded as exhaustive in all its relations."—The New York Tribune.

"A masterly work. . . No American book of recent years does equal credit to American scholarship, or is deserving of a more pronounced success."—Boston Globe.

"I have been struck with the warm glow of enthusiasm pervading it, and with the attractiveness of its descriptions and discussions. I sincerely wish it a wide circulation and careful study."—William Dwight Whitney, Professor of Sanscrit and Comparative Philology, Yale College.

"I like it decidedly. A mythologist must be not only a scholar but a bit of a poet, otherwise he will never understand that petrified poetry out of which the mythology of every nation is built up. You seem to me to have that gift of poetic divination, and, therefore, whenever I approach the dark runes of the Edda, I shall gladly avail myself of your help and guidance."

Yours truly, F. Max Muller, University of Oxford.

"We have never seen so complete a view of the religion of the Norsemen. The Myths which Prof. Anderson has translated for us are characterized by a wild poetry and by suggestions of strong thought. We see images of singular beauty in the landscape of ice and snow. Sparks of fire are often struck out from these verses of flint and steel."—Bibliotheca Sacra.

"Professor Anderson is an enthusiastic as well as an able scholar; and he imparts his enthusiasm to his readers. His volume is deeply interesting as well as in a high degree instructive. No such account of the old Scandinavian Mythology has hitherto been given in the English language. It is full, and elucidates the subject in all points of view. It contains abundant illustrations in literal and poetic translations from the Eddas and Sagas. . . Professor Anderson's interpretations of the myths throw new light upon them, and are valuable additions (as is the whole work) to the history of religion and of literature. . . It deserves to be welcomed, not only as most creditable to American scholarship, but also as an indication of the literary enterprise which is surely growing up in our North-western States."—The Presbyterian Quarterly and Princeton Review.

AMERICA NOT DISCOVERED BY COLUMBUS.—A Historical Sketch of the Discovery of America by the Norsemen in the 10th century. By PROF. R. B. ANDERSON, of the University of Wisconsin, with an Appendix on the Historical, Literary and Scientific value of the Scandinavian Languages.

Price, 12mo, cloth.....$1 00

"A valuable addition to American history. The object is fully described in its title page, and the author's narrative is very remarkable. * * * The book is full of surprising statements, and will be read with something like wonderment."—Notes and Queries, London.

PRE-HISTORIC RACES OF THE UNITED STATES.

By J. W. FOSTER, LL.D., Author of "The Physical Geography of the Mississippi Valley," etc. 415 pages, crown 8vo, with a large number of illustrations.

Price, cloth.....	$3 50
Half calf binding, gilt top.....	6 00
Full calf, gilt edges.....	7 50

"One of the best and clearest accounts we have seen of those grand monuments of a forgotten race."—London Saturday Review.

"The reader will find it more fascinating than his last favorite novel."—Eclectic Magazine, N. Y.

"The book is literally crowded with astonishing and valuable facts."—Boston Post.

"It is an elegant volume and a valuable contribution to the subject. * * * Contains just the kind of information in clear, compressed and intelligible form, which is adapted to the mass of readers."—Appleton's Popular Science Monthly.

"The book is typographically perfect, and with its admirable illustrations and convenient index is really elegant and a sort of luxury to possess and read. * * Dr. Foster's style reminds us of Tyndall and Proctor, at their best. * * He goes over the ground, inch by inch, and accumulates information of surprising interest and importance, bearing on this subject, which he gives in his crowded but most instructive and entertaining chapters in a thoroughly scientific but equally popular way. We have marked whole pages of his book for quotation, and finally from sheer necessity have been compelled to put the whole volume in quotation marks, as one of the few books that are indispensable to the student, and scarcely less important for the intelligent reader to have at hand for reference."—Golden Age, New York.

A MANUAL OF GESTURE.—With over 100 Figures, embracing a complete system of Notation, with the Principles of Interpretation and Selections for Practice. By Prof. A. M. BACON.

Price	$1 75

"Prof. Bacon has given us a work that, in thoroughness and practical value, deserves to rank among the most remarkable books of the season. There has in fact, been no work on the subject yet offered to the public which approaches it for exhaustiveness and completeness of detail. * * It is of the utmost value, not merely to students, but to lawyers, clergymen, teachers, and public speakers, and its importance as an assistant in the formation of a correct and appropriate style of action can hardly be over-estimated."—The Philadelphia Inquirer.

"Prof. Bacon's Manual seems expressly arranged for the help of those who study alone and have undertaken self-instruction in the art of persuasive delivery. The work in the hands of our ministry, well studied, would have the effect of emphasizing the living words of the Gospel all over the land, and making them two-edged with meaning."—The Chicago Pulpit.

GETTING ON IN THE WORLD; or, Hints on Success in Life.—By WM. MATHEWS, LL.D., Professor of English Literature, etc., in the University of Chicago. Beautifully printed and handsomely bound.

Price, 1 vol., 12mo., Cloth.....	$2 25	Half calf binding, gilt top.....	$3 50

CONTENTS:—Success and Failure—Good and Bad Luck—Choice of a Profession—Physical Culture—Concentration—Self-Reliance—Originality in Aims and Methods—Attention to Details—Practical Talent—Decision—Manner—Business Habits—Self-Advertising—The Will and the Way—Reserved Power—Economy of Time—Money, its Use and Abuse—Mercantile Failures—Over-Work and Under-Rest—True and False Success.

"A book in the highest degree attractive, * * and which will be sure to pay in dollars and cents many times over the cost of the work, and the time devoted to its perusal."—Lockport Journal, New York.

"It is sound, morally and mentally. It gives no one-sided view of life; it does not pander to the lower nature; but it is high-toned, correctly toned throughout. * * There is an earnestness and even eloquence in this volume which makes the author appear to speak to us from the living page. It reads like a speech. There is an electric fire about every sentence."—Episcopal Register, Philadelphia.

"There is no danger of speaking in too high terms of praise of this volume. As a work of art it is a gem. As a counselor it speaks the wisdom of the ages. As a teacher it illustrates the true philosophy of life by the experience of eminent men of every class and calling. It warns by the story of signal failures, and encourages by the record of triumphs that seemed impossible. It is a book of facts and not of theories. The men who have succeeded in life are laid under tribute, and made to divulge the secret of their success. They give vastly more than 'hints'; they make a revelation. They show that success lies not in luck, but in pluck. Instruction and inspiration are the chief features of the work which Prof. Mathews has done in this volume."—Christian Era, Boston.

"As fascinating as anything in fiction."—Concord Monitor.

"These pages are crammed with interesting facts about literary men and literary work."—New York Evening Mail.

"They are written in that charming and graceful style, which is so attractive in this author's writings, and the reader is continually reminded by their ease and grace of the elegant compositions of Goldsmith and Irving."—Boston Transcript.

"Twenty essays, all treating lively and agreeable themes, and in the easy, polished and sparkling style that has made the author famous as an essayist. * * The most striking characteristic of Prof. Mathews' writing is its wonderful wealth of illustration. * * One will make the acquaintance of more authors in the course of a single one of his essays than are probably to be met with in the same limited space anywhere else in the whole realm of our literature."—The Chicago Tribune.

THE WORLD ON WHEELS, and Other Sketches.—

By BENJ. F. TAYLOR. Illustrated. 1 vol., 12mo. Price, $1.50.

"Full of humor and sharp as a Damascus blade."—Presbyterian, Phil a.

"The pen-pictures of B. F. Taylor are among the most brilliant and eccentric productions of the day. They are like the music of Gottschalk played by Gottschalk himself; or like sky-rockets that burst in the zenith, and fall in showers of fiery rain. They are word-wonders, reminding us of necromancy, with the dazzle and bewilderment of their rapid succession."—Chicago Tribune.

"Reader, do you want to laugh? Do you want to cry? Do you want to climb the Jacob's ladder of imagination, and dwell among the clouds of fancy for a little while at least? Do you? Then get B. F. Taylor's World on Wheels, read it, and experience sensations you never felt before! * * It is a book of 'word pictures,' a string of pearls, the very poesy of thought."—The Christian, St. Louis.

"Another of Benj. F. Taylor's wonderful word-painting books. * * In purity of style and originality of conception, Taylor has no superiors in this country. The book before us is a gem in every way. It is quaint, poetical, melodious, unique, rare as rare flowers are rare. He has an exquisite faculty of illustration that is unsurpassed in the whole range of American literature."—St. Louis Dispatch.

OLD-TIME PICTURES and SHEAVES of RHYME.

By BENJ. F. TAYLOR. Red line edition, small quarto, silk cloth, with eight fine full page illustrations.

JOHN G. WHITTIER writes:—"It gives me pleasure to see the poems of B. F. Taylor issued by your house in a form worthy of their merit. Such pieces as the 'Old Village Choir,' 'The Skylark,' 'The Vane on the Spire,' and 'June,' deserve their good setting. * * I do not know of anyone who so well reproduces the home scenes of long ago. There is a quiet humor that pleases me."

"Unless it be Whittier, we know of no American poet so sweet, tender and gentle in his lyrics as B. F. Taylor. No writer of to-day sings the praises of rural life and scenery as eloquently, and we do not wonder that many of his poems have become classic. The holiday volume of his happy verses, OLD-TIME PICTURES AND SHEAVES OF RHYME is a very eloquent and daintily bound volume, and comes from that growing and reliable publishing house of the West, S. C. Griggs & Company, of Chicago. Taking up this handsomely printed book, we have to linger on the delightful imagery and graceful diction of its pages, glowing as they are with pure and tender thoughts, and the earnest, indescribable music of sunny fields and rural joys. * * No one can read it but will be the better for so doing."—The Albany Morning Express.

PICTURES OF LIFE IN CAMP AND FIELD—By BENJ.

F. TAYLOR, Author of "The World on Wheels," "Songs of Yesterday," etc.

12mo, cloth.....$1.50

"The descriptions are singularly brilliant."—New York Sunday Times.

"The book will greatly interest large classes of readers."—Boston Gazette.

"A volume that embalms such stories of the nation's sorest hour of trial, cannot lack for thrilled and tearful readers."—Chicago Tribune.

"The war annals of ancient or modern times, from Cæsar's campaigns to the Franco-Prussian war, will furnish material no more beautifully wrought up than this, by the word-artist of the Great Rebellion."—New England Journal of Education.

"Every letter is replete with pathos; every description is a power, and most of the anecdotes touching in the extreme. It is almost impossible to say which of these letters is best, but taken as a whole, they have formed a book that will live."—Chicago Times.

"The beauty of diction, amazing life-likeness, stirring action and rich coloring of these word-pictures of camp and field, have had a deservedly popular reception. . . . The art of the writer of these letters is marvelous. . . . Their correctness as to facts is seldom to be questioned, and the beauty of the descriptions never."—Syracuse Journal.

PATMOS; or, The Kingdom and the Patience.—By

J. A. SMITH, D.D., Editor of the Standard. Square 16mo, cloth, $1.25.

"It merits universal circulation."—Christian Standard, Philadelphia.

"A book for the improvement of the heart."—Christian Guardian, Toronto.

"Admirably calculated to challenge the Christian reader to utmost doing and enduring for the sake of the Master."—Watchman and Reflector, Boston.

"No one can read the nine chapters which the volume contains, without receiving a new inspiration to faithful service in the cause of Christ."—Zion's Advocate.

"To earnest seekers for higher spiritual attainments the author has rendered a service at once great and beautiful. Originality of thought, beauty and purity of expression and graphic delineation, are among its marked features."—National Baptist, Philadelphia.

THE TRINITY.—By REV. F. H. BURRIS. With an introduction by JOSEPH HAVEN, D.D., LL. D. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

"One of the most unique, sincere and thorough discussions of the subject of the Trinity, which we have ever seen . . . we commend its perusal to all our brethren."—American Wesleyan, N. Y.

"A thoughtful and very interesting book. . . . Much that he says is forcible and inciting to renewed thought."—Christian Union, N. Y.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE PLAN OF SALVATION.—
By REV. J. B. WALKER, D.D., with an Introductory Essay by CALVIN E. STOWE, D.D. A new edition, with supplementary chapter by the author. Sixty-seventh thousand. 1 vol. 12mo. Price, $1.50.

"Though written with great simplicity, it is evidently the production of a master mind. * * and few works are more adapted to bring skeptics of a certain class to a stand. * * It is the disclosure of the actual process of mind through which the author passes, from the dark regions of doubt and infidelity to the clear light and conviction of a sound and heartfelt belief of the truth as it is in Jesus.

"There is in many parts of this treatise, a force of argument and a power of conviction almost resistless.

"It is a work of extraordinary power. * * We think it is more likely to lodge an impression in the human conscience, in favor of the divine authority of Christianity, than any work of the modern press."—London Evangelical Magazine, England.

"No single volume we ever read has been so satisfactory a demonstration of the truth of religion, or has had so strong a controlling influence over our habits of thought. * * No better book can be put into the hands of the honest and intellectual skeptic. It is overwhelmingly convincing to reason, and leaves the doubter nothing but his passions and prejudices to bolster him up. * * Every minister's library should have a copy."—The Methodist Protestant, Baltimore.

"It fills a place in theological literature which no other book does. It is the style of the argument which gives power, impressiveness, and perennial freshness to this production. * * We have found in pastoral experience that we could place no better uninspired book than this in the hands of intelligent doubters, or in the hands of new converts, for their aid and guidance. Those who are not familiar with it, will do well to procure a copy and study it carefully. It is worth more than some large libraries to those who read for their profiting."—The Christian at Work, New York.

THE DOCTRINE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT; Or Philosophy of the Divine Operation in the Redemption of Man.—Being volume second of "The Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation."
By REV. J. B. WALKER, D.D. Fourth edition, revised and enlarged. Price, $1.50.

"The author's former able works have prepared the public for the rich treasures of thought in this volume. It is a book of foundation principles, and deals in the verities of the gospel as with scientific facts. It is an unanswerable argument in behalf of Christ's life, mission, and doctrine, and especially rich in its teachings concerning the office and work of the Spirit. No volume has lately issued from the press which brings so many timely truths to the public attention. While it is metaphysical and thorough, it is also clever, forceful, winning for its grand truth's sake, and every way readable. The author has wrought a great work for the Christian Church, and every minister and teacher should arm himself with strong weapons by perusing the arguments of this book. It is printed and bound in the exquisite style of all publications which issue from Messrs. S. C. Griggs & Co.'s establishment."—Methodist Recorder, Pittsburgh.

ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, For Deliberative Assemblies.—
By Major H. M. Robert, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. Pocket size, cloth, 75 cents.

This book is far superior to any other parliamentary manual in the English language. It gives in the simplest form possible all the various rules or points of law or order that can arise in the deliberations of any lodge, grange, debating club, literary society, convention, or other organized body, and every rule is complete in itself, and as easily found as a word in a dictionary. Its crowning excellence is a "Table of Rules relating to Motions," on two opposite pages which contains the answers to more than two hundred questions on parliamentary law, which will be of the greatest value to every member of an assembly.

"It should be studied by all who wish to become familiar with the correct usages of public meetings."—E. O. Haven, D. D., Chancellor of Syracuse University.

"It seems much better adapted to the use of societies and assemblies than either Jefferson's Manual or Cushing's."—J. M. Gregory, LL. D., late President of the Illinois Industrial University.

"I shall be very glad to see your Manual brought into general use, as I am sure it must be, when its great merit and utility become generally known."—*Hon. T.
M. Cooley, LL. D., author of 'Cooley's Blackstone,' etc.*

"After carefully examining it and comparing it with several other books having the same object in view, I am free to say that it is, by far, the best of all. The 'Table of Rules' is worth the cost of the work."—Thomas Bowman, D. D., Bishop of Baltimore M. E. Conference.

"This capital little manual will be found exceedingly useful by all who are concerned in the organization or management of societies of various kinds. . . .
If we mistake not, the book will displace all its predecessors, as an authority on parliamentary usages."—New York World.

"I admire the plan of your work, and the simplicity and fidelity with which you have executed it. It is one of the best compendiums of Parliamentary Law that I have seen, and exceedingly valuable, not only for the matter usually embraced in such a book, but for its tables and incidental matter, which serve greatly to adapt it to common use."—Dr. D. C. Eddy, Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives.

MISHAPS OF MR. EZEKIEL PELTER.—Illustrated.

12mo, cloth.....$1.50.

"So ludicrous are the vicissitudes of the much-abused Ezekiel, and so much of human nature and every-day life intermingle, that it will be read with a hearty zest for its morals, while the humor is irresistible. If you want to laugh at something new, a regular side-splitter, get this book."—The Evangelist, St. Louis.

"We have read Ezekiel. We have laughed and cried over its pages. It grows in interest to the last sentence. The story is well told, and the moral so good, that we decidedly like and commend it."—Pacific Baptist, San Francisco.
