

BIBLIOTECA

166917
F1230
P7
13
F1230

.P7

1873

v.3

Copyright, 1843,
By WILLIAM H. PRESCOTT.

Copyright, 1871,
By WILLIAM G. PRESCOTT.

Copyright, 1873,
By J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO.

Mexico—Vol. III.

FONDO DE HISTORIA

127534

Lippincott's Press, Philadelphia.

12 Espinoza 30/07/08

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

BOOK VI.

SIEGE AND SURRENDER OF MEXICO.

CHAPTER I.

	PAGE
ARRANGEMENTS AT TEZCUCO.—SACK OF IZTAPALAPAN.—
ADVANTAGES OF THE SPANIARDS.—WISE POLICY OF
CORTÉS.—TRANSPORTATION OF THE BRIGANTINES	3
Headquarters at Tezcucó	3
Cortés distrusts the Natives	4
Negotiates with the Aztecs	5
City of Iztapalapan	6
Spaniards march upon it	7
Sack the Town	8
Natives break down the Dikes	9
Spaniards struggle in the Flood	10
Regain their Quarters in Tezcucó	10
Indian Cities tender Allegiance	11
Some ask for Protection	11
Cortés detaches Sandoval to their Aid	12
Difficult Situation of Cortés	13
His sagacious Policy	15
Makes Overtures to Guatemozin	17
Spirit of the Indian Emperor	17
The Brigantines are completed	19
Sandoval detached to transport them	19
Signs of the Massacre at Zoltepec	20
Reaches Tlascala	21
Transportation of the Brigantines	22
Joy at their Arrival	22
Reflections	23

A*

v

CHAPTER II.

	PAGE
CORTÉS RECONNOITRES THE CAPITAL.—OCCUPIES TACUBA. —SKIRMISHES WITH THE ENEMY.—EXPEDITION OF SANDOVAL.—ARRIVAL OF REINFORCEMENTS	25
Cortés reconnoitres the Capital	25
Action at Xaltocan	26
Spaniards ford the Lake	27
Towns deserted as they advance	28
Beautiful Environs of Mexico	28
Cortés occupies Tacuba	29
The Allies fire the Town	30
Ambuscade of the Aztecs	31
Parley with the Enemy	33
Single Combats	34
Position of the Parties	34
Spaniards return to Tezcuco	35
Embassy from Chalco	36
Sandoval is detached to defend it	37
Takes Huaxtepec	38
Storms Jacapichitla	39
Puts the Garrison to the Sword	40
Countermarch on Chalco	41
Cortés' Coolness with Sandoval	42
His Reconciliation	42
Arrival of Reinforcements	43
The Dominican Friar	44

CHAPTER III.

SECOND RECONNOITRING EXPEDITION.—ENGAGEMENTS ON THE SIERRA.—CAPTURE OF CUERNAVACA.—BATTLES AT XOCHIMILCO.—NARROW ESCAPE OF CORTÉS.—HE ENTERS TACUBA	45
Second reconnoitring Expedition	45
Preparations for the March	46
Spaniards enter the Sierra	46
Engagements in the Passes	47

	PAGE
Rocks rolled down by the Aztecs	47
Enemy routed	48
Spaniards bivouac in the Mulberry Grove	49
Storm the Cliffs	49
March through the Mountains	51
Arrive at Cuernavaca	51
Scenery in its Environs	52
Bold Passage of the Ravine	54
Capture of the City	55
Cortés recrosses the Sierra	55
Exquisite View of the Valley	56
Marches against Xochimilco	57
Narrow Escape of Cortés	58
Chivalric Spirit of the Age	60
Cortés surveys the Country	61
Vigilance in his Quarters	62
Battles at Xochimilco	62
Spaniards Masters of the Town	63
Conflagration of Xochimilco	65
Army arrives at Cojohuacan	66
Ambuscade of the Indians	68
Spaniards enter Tacuba	69
View from its Teocalli	69
Strong Emotion of Cortés	70
Return to Tezcuco	72

CHAPTER IV.

CONSPIRACY IN THE ARMY.—BRIGANTINES LAUNCHED.— MUSTER OF FORCES.—EXECUTION OF XICOTENCATL.— MARCH OF THE ARMY.—BEGINNING OF THE SIEGE	73
Affairs in Spain	73
Conspiracy in the Camp	75
Its Design	76
Disclosed to Cortés	77
The Ringleader executed	78
Policy of Cortés	79
The General's Body-guard	80
Brigantines launched	81

	PAGE
Impression on the Spectators	82
Mustering of Forces	83
Instructions to the Allies	84
Cortés distributes his Troops	85
His Spirited Harangue	86
Regulations read to the Army	87
Desertion of Xicotencatl	88
His Execution	89
His Character	90
March of the Army	91
Quarrel of Olid and Alvarado	91
Spaniards destroy the Aqueduct	92
Commencement of the Siege	94

CHAPTER V.

INDIAN FLOTILLA DEFEATED.—OCCUPATION OF THE CAUSEWAYS.—DESPERATE ASSAULTS.—FIRING OF THE PALACES.—SPIRIT OF THE BESIEGED.—BARRACKS FOR THE TROOPS

	95
Sandoval marches on Iztapalapan	95
Cortés takes Command of the Fleet	95
Indian Flotilla defeated	97
Cortés occupies Xoloc	98
Sandoval advances to Cojohuacan	99
Skirmishes on the Causeway	100
Blockade completed	101
Simultaneous Assaults on Mexico	101
Ramparts raised by the Aztecs	102
Brigantines enfilade the Causeway	102
Spaniards enter the City	103
Allies demolish the Buildings	104
Fierce Battles in the City	105
Spaniards reach the Square	106
Storm the Pyramid	107
Hurl the Priests headlong	107
The Aztecs rally	108
Spaniards give Way	108
Cavalry to the Rescue	108

	PAGE
Retreat to their Quarters	109
Ixtlilxochitl in the Camp	111
A second Assault	111
Spaniards penetrate the City	112
Fire the Palace of Axayacatl	113
Royal Aviary in Flames	114
Rage of the Mexicans	114
Their Desperation	115
Sufferings of the Spaniards	117
Operations of Guatemozin	118
His Vigilance	119
Ambuscade among the Reeds	120
Resources of the Indian Emperor	121
Accession of Allies to the Spaniards	122
Barracks for the Troops	122
Hard Fare of the Besiegers	123
Spirit of the Aztecs	125

CHAPTER VI.

GENERAL ASSAULT ON THE CITY.—DEFEAT OF THE SPANIARDS.—THEIR DISASTROUS CONDITION.—SACRIFICE OF THE CAPTIVES.—DEFECTION OF THE ALLIES.—CONSTANCY OF THE TROOPS

	126
Views of the Spaniards	126
Council of War	127
General Assault on the City	128
Cortés rebukes Alvarado	129
The Enemy give Way	130
Their cunning Stratagem	131
Horn of Guatemozin sounds	132
Aztecs turn upon their Foe	132
Terrible Rout of the Spaniards	133
Imminent Danger of Cortés	134
Self-devotion of his Followers	135
Sharp Struggle on the Causeway	136
His Division retreats	137
Sandoval and Alvarado	137
Their Troops driven from the City	138

	PAGE
Sandoval visits the General	139
His Interview with him	141
Great Drum beat in the Temple	142
Sacrifice of the Captives	143
Sensations of the Spaniards	144
Rejoicings of the Aztecs	145
Prophecy of the Priests	145
Defection of the Allies	146
Gloomy Condition of the Spaniards	147
Their Constancy	148
Heroism of their Women	148

CHAPTER VII.

SUCCESSES OF THE SPANIARDS.—FRUITLESS OFFERS TO GUATEMOZIN.—BUILDINGS RAZED TO THE GROUND.— TERRIBLE FAMINE.—THE TROOPS GAIN THE MARKET- PLACE.—BATTERING ENGINE		150
Allies return to the Camp		150
Accession of Confederates		152
Plan of the Campaign		153
The Breaches filled		155
Famine in the City		156
Fruitless Offers to Guatemozin		157
Council of the Aztecs		157
Result of their Deliberations		159
Buildings razed to the Ground		159
Single Combats		161
Guatemozin's Palace in Flames		161
Sufferings of the Besieged		162
Neglect of their Dead		163
Their unconquerable Spirit		165
Conflagration of the Teocalli		166
Success of Alvarado		166
Spaniards in the Market-place		169
Cortés surveys the City		170
Its Desolation		170
Battering Engine		172
Its Fallure		173

CHAPTER VIII.

DREADFUL SUFFERINGS OF THE BESIEGED.—SPIRIT OF GUATEMOZIN.—MURDEROUS ASSAULTS.—CAPTURE OF GUATEMOZIN.—EVACUATION OF THE CITY.—TERMINA- TION OF THE SIEGE.—REFLECTIONS		PAGE
		174
Dreadful Famine in the City		174
Cannibalism		175
The Corpses fill the Streets		176
Pestilence sweeps off Multitudes		176
Alarming Prodigies		177
Spirit of Guatemozin		178
Cortés requests an Interview with him		179
Guatemozin consents		179
He avoids a Parley		180
Murderous Assault		182
Appalling Scene of Carnage		182
Preparations for the final Attack		184
Cortés urges an Interview		185
The Signal given		187
Aztecs attempt to escape		187
Capture of Guatemozin		188
Cessation of Hostilities		189
Person of Guatemozin		191
Brought before Cortés		191
His Wife, Montezuma's Daughter		192
Furious Thunder-storm		194
Mexicans abandon their City		195
Number of those who perished		196
Amount of the Spoil		197
Cortés dismisses his Allies		198
Rejoicings of the Spaniards		198
Solemn Thanksgiving		199
Reflections		200
Aztec Institutions		201
Their moral Influence		202
Cruelty ascribed to the Spaniards		203
The Conquest as a military Achievement		206

	PAGE
Notice of the Historian Solís	208
His Life and Writings	209
Sahagun's Twelfth Book	214

BOOK VII.

CONCLUSION.—SUBSEQUENT CAREER OF CORTÉS.

CHAPTER I.

TORTURE OF GUATEMOZIN.—SUBMISSION OF THE COUNTRY.
—REBUILDING OF THE CAPITAL.—MISSION TO CASTILE.
—COMPLAINTS AGAINST CORTÉS.—HE IS CONFIRMED IN HIS AUTHORITY	217
Small Amount of Treasure	218
Disappointment of the Soldiers	218
Torture of Guatemozin	218
His Fortitude unshaken	219
Submission of the Country	220
The Southern Ocean reached	221
Rebuilding of the Capital	223
Aztec Prophecy accomplished	223
Mission to Castile	224
Envoys captured by the French	226
Charges against Cortés	227
Tápia sent to New Spain	228
Insurrection of the Natives	229
Quelled by Sandoval	229
Fonseca's Hostility to Cortés	230
His Cause referred to a select Tribunal	231
Accusations against Cortés	232
Defence by his Friends	232
Acts of Cortés ratified	234
He is confirmed in the supreme Authority	234

	PAGE
He triumphs over Fonseca	235
Mortification of Velasquez	236
His Death and Character	237

CHAPTER II.

MODERN MEXICO.—SETTLEMENT OF THE COUNTRY.—CONDITION OF THE NATIVES.—CHRISTIAN MISSIONARIES.—CULTIVATION OF THE SOIL.—VOYAGES AND EXPEDITIONS

Mexico rebuilt	239
Edifices in the City	240
Its Fortress	241
Its Population	242
Settlement of the Country	243
Encouragements to Marriage	244
The Wife of Cortés arrives in Mexico	245
Her Death	247
System of Repartimientos	247
Reward of the Tlascalans	249
Treatment of the Natives	250
Franciscan Missionaries	251
Their Reception by Cortés	252
Progress of Conversion	254
Settlements of the Conquerors	255
Cultivation of the Soil	256
Fleet burnt at Zacatula	257
Voyages to discover a Strait	258
Expedition of Alvarado	260
Result of the Enterprises of Cortés	261

CHAPTER III.

DEFECTION OF OLID.—DREADFUL MARCH TO HONDURAS.—EXECUTION OF GUATEMOZIN.—DOÑA MARINA.—ARIVAL AT HONDURAS

Defection of Olid	263
Cortés prepares to visit Honduras	264
The General's Retinue	265

	PAGE
Obstacles on the March	267
Passes near Palenque	268
Lost in the Mazes of the Forests	269
Builds a stupendous Bridge	270
Horses sink in the Marshes	270
Reports of a Conspiracy	271
Guatemozin arrested	272
His Execution	273
His Character	273
Feelings of the Army	275
Cause of the Execution	275
Cortés' Remorse	276
Prosecution of the March	277
Lake of Peten	277
Doña Marina	278
Her Meeting with her Mother	278
She marries a Castilian Knight	279
Her Son Don Martin	280
Missionaries in the Isles of Peten	280
Passage of "the Mountain of Flints"	281
Army arrives at Honduras	282
Famine in the Colony	283
Cortés reaches Truxillo	284
Prepares to reduce Nicaragua	284
His romantic Daring	284
Tidings from Mexico	285

CHAPTER IV.

DISTURBANCES IN MEXICO.—RETURN OF CORTÉS.—DIS-
TRUST OF THE COURT.—CORTÉS RETURNS TO SPAIN.—
DEATH OF SANDOVAL.—BRILLIANT RECEPTION OF
CORTÉS.—HONORS CONFERRED ON HIM	286
Misrule in Mexico	286
Cortés attempts to return	287
Driven back by the Tempest	287
His Despondency	288
Embarks once more for Mexico	288
Lands near San Juan de Ulua	288

	PAGE
Progress to the Capital	289
Cortés re-enters Mexico in State	289
Distrust of the Crown	291
Ponce de Leon sent as Commissioner	292
He dies on his Arrival	292
Appoints Estrada his Successor	293
Affronts to Cortés	295
He leaves the City	296
The Commission of the Royal Audience	296
Cortés determines to return to Spain	297
News of his Father's Death	299
Preparations for Departure	299
He lands at Palos	300
His Meeting with Pizarro	300
Death of Sandoval	301
His Person and Character	302
Brilliant Reception of Cortés	303
Sensation caused by his Presence	303
Admitted to an Audience by the Emperor	305
Charles V. visits him when ill	305
He is made Marquis of the Valley	306
Grants of Lands and Vassals	306
Refused the Government of Mexico	308
Reinstated in his military Command	308
Cortés' second Marriage	309
Splendid Presents to his Bride	310
His Residence at Court	311

CHAPTER V.

CORTÉS REVISITS MEXICO.—RETIRES TO HIS ESTATES.—
HIS VOYAGES OF DISCOVERY.—FINAL RETURN TO CAS-TILE.—COLD RECEPTION.—DEATH OF CORTÉS.—HIS
CHARACTER	312
Cortés embarks for Mexico	312
Stops at Hispaniola	312
Proceedings of the Audience	313
Cortés lands at Villa Rica	315
Reception in Mexico	316

	PAGE
Retires to his Estates	317
His Improvement of them	318
His Voyages of Discovery	319
He embarks for California	319
Disastrous Expedition	320
Arrival of a Viceroy	321
Policy of the Crown	321
Maritime Enterprises of Cortés	323
His Disgust with Mendoza	324
His final Return to Castile	325
He joins the Expedition to Algiers	325
His cold Reception by Charles V.	327
Cortés' last Letter to the Emperor	327
Taken ill at Seville	329
His Will	329
Scruples of Conscience as to Slavery	330
Views entertained on this Topic	331
He moves to Castilleja	332
Death of Cortés	333
His funeral Obsequies	333
Fate of his Remains	334
Posterity of Cortés	336
His Character	338
His Knight-errantry	338
His military Genius	340
Power over his Soldiers	341
Character as a Conqueror	343
His enlightened Views	343
His private Life	345
His Bigotry	346
His Manners and Habits	348

APPENDIX, PART I.

ORIGIN OF THE MEXICAN CIVILIZATION.—ANALOGIES
WITH THE OLD WORLD.

	PAGE
PRELIMINARY NOTICE	353
Speculations on the New World	355
Manner of its Population	356
Plato's Atlantis	356
Modern Theory	358
Communication with the Old World	359
Origin of American Civilization	361
Plan of the Essay	362
Analogies suggested by the Mexicans to the Old World	362
Their Traditions of the Deluge	363
Resemble the Hebrew Accounts	364
Temple of Cholula	365
Analogy to the Tower of Babel	365
The Mexican Eve	366
The God Quetzalcoatl	367
Natural Errors of the Missionaries	368
The Cross in Anahuac	368
Eucharist and Baptism	369
Chroniclers strive for Coincidences	372
Argument drawn from these	373
Resemblance of social Usages	375
Analogies from Science	376
Chronological System	376
Hieroglyphics and Symbols	376
Adjustment of Time	377
Affinities of Language	378
Difficulties of Comparison	379
Traditions of Migration	381
Tests of their Truth	383
Physical Analogies	384
Architectural Remains	386
Destructive Spirit of the Spaniards	387

	PAGE
Ruins in Chiapa and Yucatan	389
Works of Art	389
Tools for Building	390
Little Resemblance to Egyptian Art	391
Sculpture	392
Hieroglyphics	393
Probable Age of these Monuments	394
Their probable Architects	394
Difficulties in forming a Conclusion	397
Ignorance of Iron and of Milk	399
Unsatisfactory Explanations	400
General Conclusions	402

APPENDIX, PART II.

ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS.

Aztec Mother's Advice to her Daughter	405
Translations of Nezahualcoyotl's Poem	409
Palace of Tezcotzinco	415
Punishment of the guilty Tezcucan Queen	417
Velasquez's Instructions to Cortés	419
Extract from Las Casas' History	423
Deposition of Puerto Carrero	425
Extract from the Letter of Vera Cruz	428
Extract from Camargo's Tlascala	431
Extract from Oviedo's History	433
Dialogue of Oviedo with Cano	437
Privilege of Doña Isabel de Montezuma	446
Military Ordinances of Cortés	451
Extracts from the Fifth Letter of Cortés	456
Last Letter of Cortés	460
Account of his funeral Obsequies	465

BOOK SIXTH.

SIEGE AND SURRENDER OF MEXICO.