

- People, Peruvian distribution of, i. 68. Burdens laid upon, 82. Condition of, 82, 84, 130. Regard for, in the Peruvian laws, 170. National character of, 173, 175.
- Peru, extent of, at time of the conquest, i. 36. Topographical aspect of, 37. Coast of, 37. Probable origin of the empire of, 42. Uncertainty of early history of, 43, note. The name, 66, and note. Division of the empire of, 67, 68. The Spaniards first hear of, 191. Rumors about, 196, 211, 218. Expedition for the discovery of, 196. Pizarro learns of the empire of, 264, 320, 324, 335. His ideas about, deemed visionary, 267. History of, previous to the conquest, 302. Pizarro marches into, 326. State of, on the death of the Inca, 437. The Spaniards complete masters of, ii. 20, 49, 129. Disorderly state of, 129, 210. Commotion produced in, by the ordinances, 223, 229. Gonzalo Pizarro master of, 270. Reduced to a state of tranquillity by Gasca, 378.
- Peruvian institutions, artificial character of, i. 66. Adapted to the people's character, 84. Reflections on, 165. Compared with Aztec, 165. Resemblance of, to those of Eastern Asia, 168, and note, 176. Opinions of early Spaniards respecting, 173. Compared with those of the United States, 174. Good results of, 175.
- Peruvians, political condition of, i. 67, 72, 74, 79, 82, 84. Military provisions of, 94. Religion of, 105. Education of, 129. Agriculture of, 140. Mechanical skill of, 157. Refinement of the intellectual character of, 136. Mind of, imitative, not inventive, 158. First intercourse of, with Spaniards, 254. Pizarro's policy towards, 322. Their kind treatment of the Spaniards, 328. Massacre of, at Caxamalca, 372, 376. Excesses of, on the Inca's death, 437. Battle of Soto with, 443. Mild and submissive character of, ii. 20, 48.
- Efforts to Christianize, 23, 213. Outrageous treatment of, by the Spaniards, 49, note, 173, 210, 211. Rise against Pizarro, 50. Attack Juan Pizarro, 54. Besiege Cuzco, 56. Set fire to the city, 57. Use Spanish arms, 64, 65. Cut off supplies from Pizarro, 71. Withdraw from Cuzco, 73. Chivalrous contests with the Spaniards, 74. Defeat them at Tambo, 75. Battle of, with Almagro, 87. Watch the battle between the Spanish armies, 104. Efforts of Gasca in behalf of, 376.
- Peso de oro, value of, i. 410, note.
Peso ensayado, value of, ii. 372, note.
- Petition of the Indians for immunities, i. 315, note.
- Picado, Pizarro's Secretary, ii. 155. Insults the men of Chili, 156. Discloses their conspiracy to Pizarro, 158. Thrown into prison, 163. Put to the torture, 179. Beheaded, 179.
- Pits employed in Peruvian husbandry, i. 144.
- Pizarro, Francisco, i. 197. His birth and early life, 198, 199. At Hispaniola, 200. Employed by Pedrarias, 200. Accompanies him to Panamá, 201. Associates himself with Almagro and Luque, 203. Sails on his first expedition, 205. His difficulties, 206. His courtesy, 208, 216. Encounters the natives, 210, 214. His dangerous adventure, 216. Lands at Chicamá, 217. Distrusts Almagro, 221, 240. His famous contract with Almagro and Luque, 224, Appendix, No. VI. Sails on his second voyage, 229. Lands his forces, 230. Marches into the country, 233. His sufferings and losses, 234. Receives brilliant accounts from Ruiz, 235. Sails along the coast, 236. Sees proofs of wealth and civilization, 237, 239, 263. Quarrels with Almagro, 240. On the Isle of Gallo, 241. Ordered to return to Panamá, 244. Draws the line on the sand, 246. Abandoned with thirteen companions, 247, and note. Vessel sent to him, 251. Sails south, 252. At

- Tumbez, 253. His intercourse with the natives, 254, 255, 258, 261, 262. Suffers from tempests, 261. Receives distinct accounts of the Peruvian empire, 262. Entertained by an Indian princess, 265. Returns to Panamá, 266. Coldly received by the governor, 267. Sets out for Spain, 269. His reception there, 277. Interview with Charles V., 278. Capitulation with the Crown, 280, Appendix, No. VII. His greediness of honors, 282. Visits his family, 284. Sails from Seville, 287. Arrives at Panamá, 287. His difficulty with Almagro, 288. Fits out vessels, 290. Sails for the conquest of Peru, 291. Lands on the coast, 291. Plunders an Indian town, 292. His exhausting march, 295. Reaches Puerto Viejo, 296. At the Isle of Puná, 299. Receives reinforcements, 300. Learns the state of the Peruvian empire, 300, 324. Crosses to Tumbez, 318. Marches into the country, 321. His liberal policy towards the natives, 322. Founds San Miguel, 324. His designs, 325. Sets out for Caxamalca, 326. His firmness and courage, 327, 338, 357. Stops disaffection in his army, 329. Receives envoys from the Inca, 331, 344, 345. His message to him, 333. Continues his march, 336. His anxieties, 337. Sends an envoy to Atahualpa, 337. His stirring eloquence, 339. Crosses the Andes, 341. Distrusts the Inca's designs, 347. His first view of Atahualpa's camp, 348. Enters Caxamalca, 351. Reanimates his followers, 357. His daring plan, 360. Prepares for Atahualpa's reception, 362, 363. Urges his entrance into the town, 366. Gives the signal of attack, 371. Protects Atahualpa's life, 373. Takes him prisoner, 375. Entertains him after the battle, 376. Pays him every attention, 378, 384. Addresses his troops, 378. Releases his Indian prisoners, 380. Sends for reinforcements, 382. Accepts the Inca's offer of ransom, 384. Endeavors to convert him, 385. Sends Hernando to Pachacamac, 391. Hears accounts of Cuzco, 401. Receives a reinforcement with Almagro, 405. Sends Hernando to Spain with treasure, 408. Melts down the gold, 409. Divides it, 413. Equity of his division, 415. Refuses to liberate Atahualpa, 416. Accuses him of treason, 418. Apprehensions of the Peruvians, 419. Brings the Inca to trial, 421. Consents to his execution, 424. Goes into mourning for him, 428. Upbraided by De Soto, 429. His responsibility, 431, 432. Story of his ignorance, 433. Appoints a new Inca, 438. Sets out for Cuzco, 438. Arrives at Xauxa, 441. Charges Challeuchima with conspiracy, 446. Condemns him to the stake, 448; and executes him, 449. Receives prince Manco, 449. Enters Cuzco, 451. Forbids dwellings to be molested, 455. Is disappointed in the amount of treasure, 456. Crowns Manco, ii. 19. Organizes a government for Cuzco, 21. Attends to religious interests, 22. Sends Almagro against Quizquiz, 24. Learns the arrival of Alvarado, 25. His interview with him at Pachacamac, 33. Founds Lima, 36. Grants to him from Charles confirmed, 39. Checks a feud between his brothers and Almagro, 44. Enters into a compact with Almagro, 44, Appendix, No. XI. Establishes settlements, 45. His treatment of Manco, 50. Repels the Peruvians from Lima, 71. His anxiety about Cuzco, 71. His letters for aid, 72. At Lima, 92. His controversy with Almagro, 93. Negotiates with him, 93, 97, 99. His treachery towards him, 101, 119. Sends Hernando against him, 103. Hears of his death, 121. Affected by it, 121. Instructions to his brother about it, 121. His partiality to his own family, 123. His deference for Hernando, 128. His unlimited authority in Peru, 129. His troubles with the Indians, 131, 133. His cruelty to Manco's wife, 132. Founds Arequipa, 134. Appoints Gonzalo governor of Quito, 135. His treatment of the Almagrian faction, 153. Conspiracy against him, 156. Disclosed to him, 158. His indifference, 158. Attacked in his house, 160. Killed, 162. Treatment of his remains, 164. His descendants, 166. His personal appearance, 166. His want of education, 168, and note. His courage, 170. His inflexibility, 170. His perfidy, 172. His treatment of Indians, 173. His want of religion, 173. His ruling motives, 174.

Pizarro, Gonzalo, i. 285. At the siege of Cuzco, ii. 64, 76. Confined there by Almagro, 90, 96. Makes his escape, 96. At the battle of Las Salinas, 106. Sent to Charcas, 123. Early life and character of, 135. Appointed governor of Quito, 137. His expedition to the "Land of Cinnamon," 138. Reaches the Amazon, 144. Reassures his followers, 149. His generous spirit, 149. Returns to Quito, 150. Learns the assassination of his brother, 152. Offers his services to Vaca de Castro, 191. Goes to Lima, 206. Summoned to Cuzco, 206. Withdraws to La Plata, 207. Works the mines of Potosí, 220. Appealed to against the viceroy, 220, 224. Repairs to Cuzco, 225. Obtains military command, 226. Musters an army, 229. Leaves Cuzco, 230. Favored by the people, 232. Approaches Lima, 240. Enforces his demands on the Audience, 241. His letter to Valdivia, 242, note. Enters Lima in triumph, 243. Proclaimed governor of Peru, 243. His proceedings at Lima, 244. Marches against Blasco Núñez, 249. Pursues him to Quito, 250-254. His stratagem, 256. Battle of Añahuito, 260. His clemency to his prisoners, 263. His ideas respecting battle, 264, note. His mild administration, 266. His triumphal progress to Lima, 267. State assumed by him, 270. Hesitates to throw off his allegiance, 272. Communications to him from Gasca, 294. His anxiety, 298. Sends Aldana to Spain, 299. His opinion of Gasca, 298, note, 300, note. His bold self-confidence, 305. Rejects Gasca's offers, 306. Prepares his forces, 307. His trust in Carbajal, 309. His change of temper, 309. Leaves Lima, 314. His distress, 314. Marches to Arequipa, 315. Resolves to retire into Chili, 318. Arrives at Huarina, 320. Battle of Huarina, 323. His dangerous situation, 325. His victory, 327. Marches to Cuzco, 329. His careless indifference, 339. Rejects Carbajal's advice, 341. Takes position at Xaquixaguana, 344. Sends spies to Gasca's camp, 345. Prepares for battle, 349. His fine appearance, 349. Desertion of his followers, 349-351. Surrenders himself prisoner, 353. His interview with Gasca, 353. Sentenced to death, 358, Appendix, No. XIV. His execution, 362-365. His character, 366.

Pizarro, Hernando, i. 285. Character of, 285. Accompanies his brother, 287. His hostility to Almagro, 288, 409. Is wounded, 299. Rescues Spaniards at Tumbes, 318. Accounts of Atahualpa obtained by, 337. Sent on an embassy to him, 351. Interview with him, 354, 355, note. Reconnoitres the country, 391. Sent to Pachacamac, 392. Forces open the temple, 395. Destroys the idol, 396. Brings Challanchima to Pizarro, 399. Sent with treasure to Spain, 408. Kindness towards Atahualpa, 419. Arrives at Seville, ii. 37. Interview with the emperor, 38. Rewards conferred on him, 39. Fits out an armament, 40. Arrives at Panamá, 41. Governor of Cuzco, 52. Suffers Manco to escape, 53. Besieged in Cuzco, 55-74. Attack of the fortress, 68. Repulsed at Tambo, 76. Taken prisoner by Almagro, 90. His danger, 91, 95, 96. Set at liberty,

99. His pursuit of Almagro, 103. Battle of Las Salinas, 106. Takes Almagro prisoner, 109. His perfidy towards him, 112, 113. His interview with him, 114. Puts him to death, 116. His warnings to his brother, 124. Embarks for Spain, 125. Coldly received at Court, 126. Imprisoned for twenty years, 126. His release and death, 127. His remarkable character, 128.

Pizarro, Juan, made Regidor of Cuzco, ii. 21. Sent in pursuit of Manco, 53. At the battle of Yucay, 53. Entangled in the mountains, 55. Leads the attack on the fortress at Cuzco, 66. Is killed, 67.

Pizarro, Pedro, his ignorance of Peruvian institutions, i. 175, note. Critical notice of, ii. 76. Loyalty of, 244, note. Life of, spared by Carbajal, 361, note.

Pizarro y Orellana, Memorial of, ii. 166, note.

Plough, Peruvian substitute for, i. 145.

Plutarch, i. 121, note.

Poetry and poets in Peru, i. 134.

Poor, anecdote respecting the cultivation of the lands of, i. 74, note. Provisions for, under the Peruvian government, 83, note.

Popayan, Vaca de Castro arrives at, ii. 177. Benalcazar governor at, 188. Blasco Núñez retreats to, 255. He abandons, 256.

Porphyry used as a building material by the Peruvians, i. 161.

Portugal, efforts of, in the cause of discovery, i. 187.

Posts, Peruvian system of, i. 88. Houses for, 89, note, 440. System of, in Eastern nations, 90, note.

Potato, cultivated in Peru, i. 149, 234, 237. Unknown in Mexico, 149, note.

Potosí, hills of, given to Gonzalo Pizarro, ii. 123. Discovery of mines of, 124, note. Mines of, worked by Pizarro, 220, by Carbajal, 269. Immense riches drawn from, 269, note.

Poverty, unknown in Peru, i. 84, 172.

Present sent to Pizarro by Atahualpa, i. 331, 344.

Priesthood, Peruvian, i. 117. How composed, 117. How supported, 117, note. Duties of, 118. See Religion.

Progresses, royal, of the Incas, i. 55, Appendix, No. I.

Property, regulation and distribution of, in Peru, i. 72-80.

Provinces, Peruvian, i. 63, 67.

Puelles joins Gonzalo Pizarro, ii. 232. Left by him at Quito, 256, 267.

Puerto de la Hambre, i. 212, 217.

Puerto de Piñas, i. 205.

Puerto Viejo, the Spaniards reach, i. 296.

Puná, Isle of, Pizarro arrives at, i. 296. Battle with the inhabitants of, 299. Warriors of, check Atahualpa, 311.

Punta de Pasado, Ruiz reaches, i. 233.

Punta Quemada, i. 214.

Q.

Queen of the Inca, i. 49, note.

Quichua dialect, i. 135.

Quintana, account of Balboa by, i. 194, note. Impartiality of, 434, note.

Quipaypan, battle of, i. 312.

Quipucamayus, i. 81, 131.

Quipus, i. 78, 131. Uses of, 131, 132. Defects of, as a symbol of thought, 133. Skill of the Peruvians in the use of, 131, 134. Present use of, 132, note. Resemblance of, to wampum, 133, note.

Quito, elevation of the plains of, i. 39, note. Subjection of, 98, note. Conquest of, by Huayna Capac, 211, note, 302. Reached by Pizarro, 237. Kingdom of, given to Atahualpa, 306. Atahualpa's remains carried to, 429. Alvarado's march to, ii. 26-28. Benalcazar seizes, 29. Almagro arrives at, 30. Gonzalo Pizarro appointed governor of, 135. He arrives at, 137; leaves, on his expedition to the Amazon, 138. His return to, 150. Vaca de Castro at, 178. Blasco Núñez marches to, 247. He is pursued to, by Pizarro, 254.

Gonzalo Pizarro at, 254. He leaves, 256; and reenters, 256. Blasco Nuñez at, 259. Pizarro's proceedings at, 263, 266. He leaves, 267.
 Quixos, territory of, ii. 138.
 Quizquiz, i. 310. His battles with Almagro, ii. 24. Put to death by his own soldiers, 25.

R.

Rada, Juan de, heads the conspiracy against Pizarro, ii. 157. Saying of, 159. At Pizarro's assassination, 162. Chief counsellor of young Almagro, 179. Death of, 182.
 Rainbow, worshipped by the Peruvians, i. 110, 114.
 Ransom of Atahualpa, i. 382, 410.
 Raymi, Feast of, i. 118.
 Registers, statistical, kept by the Inca, i. 78, 81, 131.
 Religion, revenues for the support of, in Peru, i. 72. A pretext for war, 91. Of foreign nations, how treated by the Peruvians, 96, 111. Provisions for, among Indian nations, 105. The basis of the Inca government, 106. Peruvian ideas of God, 108. Worship of the sun and moon, 109. Inferior deities, 109. Only precious metals used for the purposes of, 114. Temples of, 116. Ministers of, 117. Festivals of, 118. Cruelties practised in the name of, 190. Of the Conquerors, 363, 369, 378, 382, 396, 425, 448, ii. 23, 213.
 Religious men, Pizarro bound to take with him, i. 281.
 Remains, of Peruvian architecture, i. 57, note, 130, note. Of Peruvian industry, 84. Of aqueducts, 142.
 Repartimientos made by Pizarro, ii. 46, 123. Ordinances respecting, 217. Distribution of, by Gasca, 373, 379.
 Resurrection, Peruvian belief in, i. 106.
 Retreat of Blasco Nuñez, ii. 255, note. Of Diego Centeno, 268.
 Revenues of the Inca, from lands, i. 72. From herds and manufactures, 75, 76. From mines, 77.

Rios, Don Pedro de los, governor of Panamá, i. 222. Favors Almagro, 235. Orders Pizarro to return, 244. His anger at his refusal, 250. Refuses to aid the confederates, 267.
 Roads, in Peru, i. 84. From Cuzco to Quito, 85-87, 334, 338, 392. Description of, by a Spaniard, 86, note. Care of, 88. Remains of, 88. Military uses of, 91. Macadamized, 163, note. Sarmiento's account of, Appendix, No. II. Traversed by Pizarro, 439; by Almagro, ii. 81.
 Robertson, manuscript of, i. 47, note.
 Romans not a maritime nation, i. 185.
 Room, where Atahualpa was confined, i. 384, note.
 Ruins on the borders of Lake Titicaca, i. 42, 43, note.
 Ruiz, Bartholomew, i. 229. Exploring voyage of, 230. Discoveries of, 232. Goes with Pizarro, 247, note. Returns to Panamá, 249. Accompanies Pizarro on his southern voyage, 252. Honor conferred on, by the Crown, 281.

S.

Sacrifices, of wives and domestics on the tombs of nobles, i. 107, 428. Of burnt offerings, 109, 121. Human, rare in Peru, 120. At the Feast of Raymi, 120, 121.
 Sancho, Pedro, high authority of, i. 450, note.
 San Juan, Rio de, Spaniards land at, i. 229. Almagro returns to, 235.
 San Lucar, Gasca embarks at, ii. 289.
 San Miguel, origin of the name, i. 299, note. Founded by Pizarro, 324. He marches from, against Atahualpa, 326. Almagro arrives at, 404. Benalcázar made governor of, ii. 29.
 Santa, port of, i. 263. Place where Peruvian mummies were preserved, 263.
 Santa Clara, Isle of, i. 253.
 Santa Cruz, Pizarro visits an Indian princess at, i. 264.

Santa Martha, i. 287. Gasca lands at, ii. 289.
 Santiago, order of, conferred on Francisco Pizarro, i. 284; on Hernando, ii. 39.
 Santiago, Rio de, northern limit of Almagro's jurisdiction, ii. 87.
 Sarabia, ingenious device of, i. 242.
 Sarmiento, high authority of, i. 97, note. Critical notice of, 177.
 Satan believed by chroniclers to counterfeit rites of Christianity, i. 122, note.
 Saxon law of hundreds and tithings, i. 68, note.
 Science, engrossed by the amautas, i. 130. The Peruvian mind not adapted to, 136. Modern, superior to ancient, 183. Progress of, compared with that of the fine arts, 184.
 Sculpture, remarkable specimens of, i. 159.
 Sechura, desert of, crossed by Pizarro, i. 261.
 Seneca, remarkable prediction of, i. 185, note.
 Seville, almost depopulated by emigration, i. 188, note. Pizarro arrives at, 277. He sails from, 287. Hernando Pizarro reaches, ii. 37. Gasca returns to, 381.
 Sheep, Peruvian, i. 152. The Llama, 152. Alpacas, 153. Huanacas and vicuñas, 154. Mode of taking, 155. Wool of, 156. See Llama.
 Silver, exclusively used in worship of the moon, i. 114. Twelve vases of, 114, note. Mines of, at Porco, 159. Used for shoeing horses, instead of iron, 398. Mines of, at Potosí, ii. 123, 124, note, 220, 269, note. City of, 134. Mingled with copper in making arms, 185. A vessel laden with, sent to Spain, 222.
 Slavery of Indians, laws respecting, ii. 217. Abolished by Gasca in Peru, 377.
 Sora, an intoxicating liquor, i. 148, note.
 Sotelo, Christoval de, ii. 182. His jealousy of Alvarado, 182. Assassinated by him, 184.
 Soto, Hernando de, i. 300. Sent to Caxas, 331, 333. Goes on an embassy to Atahualpa, 351. Exhibition of horsemanship by, 355. Friendly to Atahualpa, 416, 429. Sent to Guamachucho, 421. Re-proves Pizarro, 429. Entangled in the sierra, 443. His battle with the Indians, 443.

 Soul, separate existence of, believed in by the Peruvians, i. 106.
 Southey, epitaph on Pizarro by, ii. 174, note.
 Spain, one of first nations in making discoveries, i. 187. Emigration from, to the New World, 188. Colonial domain of, 192. Pizarro goes to, 277. Hernando Pizarro in, ii. 37, 126. Commotion produced in, by Gonzalo Pizarro's rebellion, 280.
 Spaniards, in the New World, i. 188, 191. Hear rumors of Peru, 191, 196, 218, 266. Omens and prodigies respecting, 304, 305, 406. Unwillingness of, to engage with Pizarro, 204, 228, 244, 286, 290. Sufferings of, 207, 209, 212, 234, 245, 294, ii. 41, 141, 144, 150, 252. Losses of, i. 210, 228, 234, ii. 150. Discontent and murmurs of, i. 208, 265, 329. Battles of, with the natives, 216, 299, 371, 442, ii. 24, 54, 61, 64, 67, 74, 75, 87. Impressions produced by, in Peru, i. 254, 262, 299, 305. Division of treasure among, 293, 413, 457. Anxiety of, 320. Pleasant march of, 328. Number of, with Pizarro, 328. Their enthusiasm, 339. Their severe march over the Andes, 342. Their entrance into Caxamalca, 352. Their gloomy forebodings, 357. Pizarro's address to, 358. Their religious enthusiasm, 358, 363, 446. Their attack on Atahualpa, 371. Their rapacity, 403. Atahualpa's impression respecting, 377. Their march to Cuzco, 439. Enter Cuzco, 451. Effect of wealth on, 453. With Alvarado, ii. 26. Cruelty of, to the natives, 49, 82, 210. At the siege of Cuzco, 58, 62, 70. Desire to abandon the city, 62. On the Chili expedition, 81, 85. Their battles among themselves, 107, 198, 260, 323. On the Amazon

- expedition, 138, 140. Their deep feelings of loyalty, 179. Attached to young Almagro, 186. Their passion for gold, 212. Their improvidence, 212. Thrown into consternation at the ordinances, 219, 223. Appeal to Vaca de Castro against them, 220; and to Gonzalo Pizarro, 220, 224. Take sides with Gasca's proclamation on, 304. Desert from Gonzalo Pizarro, 313, 348. Their discontent with the repartimientos, 374. See Gold and Peruvians.
- Spanish colonies, the mode of their acquisition, unfavorable to the interests of the natives, ii. 209.
- Springs of warm water at Caxamalca, i. 345.
- Stars, objects of Peruvian worship, i. 109, 114.
- Stevenson, description of the River of Emeralds by, i. 237, note; of Caxamalca, 350, note.
- St. Matthew, Bay of, Ruiz enters, i. 230. Pizarro reaches, 236. He disembarks his forces at, 291.
- Stone, tools made of, i. 158.
- Sun, tradition respecting, i. 39. Temple of, at Cuzco, 46, 112, 402, 455. Lands assigned to, 72. Peculiar sanctity of, 109, 111. Temples of, 111, 115, 116. Virgins of, 116, 121, 125. See Religion and Temples.
- T.
- Tacamez, i. 237. Touched at by Pizarro, 252.
- Tambo, the Royal buildings at, i. 59, note. The Inca Manco at, ii. 73. Attacked by Hernando Pizarro, 74.
- Tambos, or inns, i. 55.
- Tangarala, settlement made at, i. 323. Almagro's camp at, ii. 102.
- Tempests suffered by Spaniards, i. 206, 214, 236, 261.
- Temples, to Pachacamac, i. 108, 109, note, 394, 395. To Thunder and Lightning, 109. To the Rainbow, 110. Of the Sun, 46, 112, 402. Of inferior deities, 116.
- Ternaux-Compans, elegance of his translations, ii. 80.
- Terraces on the Cordilleras, i. 38, 143.
- Theatrical exhibitions in Peru, i. 136.
- Theft, punishment of, in Peru, i. 69, note.
- Thirteen companions of Pizarro, i. 246, 281.
- Thought, symbols for the expression of, i. 134.
- Thunder, Peruvian word for, i. 109, note. An object of worship in Peru, 109, 114.
- Time, Peruvian method of measuring, i. 137.
- Titicaca lake, i. 39. Ruins on the borders of, 42, 43. Centeno encamps on the borders of, ii. 307. Gonzalo Pizarro approaches, 319. Battle of Huarina on, 323.
- Titicussi, Memorial of, i. 375, note.
- Tobacco, cultivation of, i. 148.
- Toledo, Pizarro visits the emperor at, i. 278.
- Tomebamba, Blasco Nuñez passes through, ii. 253.
- Tools, of the Peruvians, i. 158, note.
- Toparca, Inca, crowned by Pizarro, i. 438. Death of, 447.
- Traditions, respecting the origin of the Peruvian empire, i. 39. Puerile, character of, in Peru, 106. Respecting a hidden treasure at Cuzco, 164, note.
- Treachery, commonness of, among the Conquerors, ii. 233.
- Treasure, found in Peruvian monuments, i. 108, and note. Hidden at Cuzco, 164, note. Sent by Pizarro to Panamá, 294. Relinquished by the Spaniards, 324. Division of, 410, 413, 414. Shown by Manco to Hernando Pizarro, ii. 52. See Gold.
- Tribunals, account of Peruvian, very meagre, i. 69, note. See Justice.
- Trinity, Peruvian knowledge of, inferred, i. 109, note.
- Truxillo, Pizarro's native place, i. 284. Visited by him, 285.
- Truxillo, in Peru, foundation of, ii. 46. Besieged by the Peruvians, 62. Gonzalo Pizarro musters his - forces at, 248. Reception of Alidana at, 311; of Gasca, 317.

- Tumbez, natives of, seen by Ruiz, i. 232. Visited by Pizarro, 253. His intercourse with the inhabitants of, 254. Visit of Molina to, 256; of Pedro de Candia, 257.
- Temple at, 258. Gardens and convents of, 259. Luque appointed bishop of, 281. The Spaniards take possession of, 319. Deserted and dismantled by its inhabitants, 319. Pizarro leaves a force at, 321. Gasca arrives at, ii. 317.
- Tumults in Peru occasioned by the royal ordinances, ii. 219.
- U.
- Umu, Villac, high-priest of Peru, ii. 45. Urges the rising of the Peruvians, 50.
- Urcos, Almagro's army at, ii. 86.
- V.
- Vaca de Castro, ii. 129. Embarks for Peru, 130. Arrives at Buena Ventura, 177. Difficult position and boldness of, 177. Goes to Quito and assumes the government, 178. Marches south, 188. Takes command of the army, 188. Reconciles his generals, 189. Arrives at Lima, 189. His army, 190. Declines Gonzalo Pizarro's assistance, 192. Negotiates with Almagro, 192. Advances to Chupas, 194. Addresses his troops, 195. Battle of Chupas, 197. Decides the action, 201. His severity towards the vanquished, 204. His mode of life at Cuzco, 204. Puts to death Almagro, 205. His treatment of Gonzalo Pizarro, 206. His judicious proceedings, 208. His efforts to quiet discontent with the ordinances, 220. Letters of the emperor to him, 222. Prevents an insurrection at Lima, 224. His reception of Blasco Nuñez, 227. Suspected and put in confinement by him, 233. Returns to Spain, 246. His subsequent fate, 245, 246.
- Valdivia, Pedro de, ii. 106. Bravery of, at Las Salinas, 107. Letter of Gonzalo Pizarro to, 300, note. Joins Gasca, 333. His self-glorification, 335, note. At the passes of the Apurimac, 337. His letter to the emperor, 343, note. Killed by the Araucans, 369.
- Valencia, Gasca at, ii. 283.
- Valverde, Pizarro's chaplain, i. 368. His interview with Atahualpa, 369, 371, note. His efforts to convert Challeuchima, 448. Performs mass at the coronation of Manco, ii. 29. Made bishop of Cuzco, 22. His letter to the emperor, 60, note. Intercedes in behalf of Picado, 179. His death, 180. His fanatical character, 180. His efforts in behalf of the Indians, 215, note.
- Vargas, Fray Juan de, i. 291.
- Vargas, Sanchez de, opposes Orellana's voyage, ii. 147.
- Vases of silver in the temple of the Moon, i. 114, note.
- Vattel on the trial of Atahualpa, i. 424, note.
- Venus, Peruvian worship of, i. 109.
- Viceroy of the provinces of the Peruvian empire, i. 67.
- Vicuñas, habits of, i. 154.
- Viracocha, a Peruvian deity, i. 108. Meaning of the word, 108, note.
- Virgins of the Sun, i. 124, note.
- Houses of, 126, 259, 353, ii. 22. Chastity of, 22, note. Outrages upon, 49, and note, 211.
- W.
- War, Peruvian method of conducting, i. 93, 94. Religious character of, among the Peruvians, 103.
- Weights, used by the Peruvians, i. 160.
- Wheat first introduced into Peru, i. 150, note.
- Wives of the Peruvian monarchs, i. 49, 63, note.
- Wool, the distribution and manufacture of, i. 76. Of llamas, 152. Of huanacos and vicuñas, 154. How obtained and used by the Peruvians, 156.

X.

Xaquixaguana, valley of, Francis Pizarro halts at, i. 447. Challicu-chima burnt at, 449. Selected as a battle-ground by Gonzalo Pizarro, ii. 344. Arrival of Gasca's army at, 346. Rout of, 351.
 Xauxa, i. 398. The Spaniards arrive at, 440, 441. They leave treasure at, 447. Letter of municipality of, 450, note. Battles with Quizquiz at, ii. 24. Great Indian hunt at, 32. Besieged by the Peruvians, 64. Pizarro at, 120. Vaca de Castro musters forces at, 190. Gasca's quarters at, 317, 331. He leaves, 335.
 Xerez, mistake of, as to the Inca's name, i. 333, note. Error in Ternaux's translation of, 893, note.

Y.

Year, how divided by the Peruvians, i. 137.
 Yucay, valley of, a favorite residence of the Incas, i. 58. Battles with the Peruvians at, ii. 53, 87.
 Yupanqui, meaning of the term, i. 40, note. Conquests by Topa Inca, 45. His maxim, 129.

Z.

Zaran, i. 330.
 Zarate, vigor and spirit of, ii. 199, note. Royal comptroller to the Audience, 245, note. Critical notice of, 388.

THE END.

CAPILLA ALFONSINA
U. A. N. L.

Esta publicación deberá ser devuelta antes de la última fecha abajo indicada.

[illegible]

