A TALE OF NATURE.

BY

JAMES LANE ALLEN,

Author of "A Kentucky Cardinal," "Aftermath," "The Blue Grass Region of Kentucky," etc.

16mo. Cloth. $1.25.

"This story by James Lane Allen is one of the gems of the season. It is artistic in its setting, realistic and true to nature and life in its descriptions, dramatic, pathetic, tragic, in its incidents; indeed, a veritable gem that must become classic. It is difficult to give an outline of the story; it is one of the stories which do not outline; it must be read."—Boston Daily Advertiser.

"The close communion and sympathy with Nature, and the noble interpretation of her wayward moods and changing phases, manifested in 'A Kentucky Cardinal' and 'Aftermath' find nobler, sweeter, ampler expression in the luminous, sunlit, sun-flushed pages of his new story."—The Bookman.

"The book continually gladdens the æsthetic sense with its luxurious and chaste objective imagery. It shows a marked advance in the author's power of vivid dialogue, and though the nature of its materials will prevent its being called the most beautiful of his stories, it is yet likely to attain the widest circulation and to be a stepping-stone to higher things."—The Chicago Tribune.

"James Lane Allen has endeared himself to thousands of readers. A master of language, gifted with a true poetic temperament, a lover of humanity, and having high ideals for the art of writing as well as for the art of living, his pages reveal the deep, strong character, capable of keen insight, yet of sympathetic helpfulness, full of a strong and unusually appreciative love of nature and a spirit of good will and cheer that affords encouragement to weary men. Every book from his pen is a genuine fountain of life."—The Hartford Post.
