TWO WILDERNESS VOYACERS

PS3505

T8

TWO WILDERNESS VO Y A G E R S

MY HOST THE ENEMY

FRANKLIN WELLES CALKINS

"The book is full of snap and go, and is spiritedly illustrated. * * * The author has evidently written of territory * * * scenes thoroughly familiar, and the simple, direct style of the narrative is decidedly pleasing. The adventures are well worth telling." -Newark Evening News.

"Bright and vigorous sketches of life and adventure on the border line of the West. * * * The stories are all far beyond the average short tale in construction and strength."

-Courier-Fournal.

"The author has given us twenty-two stories, every one brim full of excitement, adventure, some pathetic and several humorous. * * * Mr. Calkins has preserved the true spirit of adventure and his transplanted to the publication the real atmosphere of the rontier. He has not depended on fiction, but has been an eyewitness to many of the incidents narrated in the stories."

-Chicago Journal.

"It would be difficult to imagine a more interesting and unique collection of tales of the American frontier. * * It is refreshing to pick up a book that seems limited by its covers rather than expanded to fit them. The stories are all short, but some of them contain as much action and more real atmosphere than those other authors have expanded to make whole books."

-Chicago Tribune.

"Incidents of actual adventure are even more interesting than the inventions of fiction, and the writer has told the stories with a vigor, directness and picturesqueness that has preserved the atmosphere of the frontier."

—Watchword.

12mo, Cloth, Illustrated, $1.50

Published by

FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY

CHICAGO

NEW YORK

TORONTO

TWO WILDERNESS VOYAGERS

A TRUE TALE OF INDIAN LIFE

BY

FRANKLIN WELLES CALKINS

FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY CHICAGO, NEW YORK, TORONTO MCMII

BIBLIOTECA

PS3505

·A38

COPYRIGHT, 1902, BY FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY

August

ACERVO DE LITERATURA

123352

TO MY "LITTLE SISTER" OF THE DAKOTAS

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	A Spring Awakening .				PAGE
-		•		•	9
II.	THE SIOUX SLAVES			•	19
III.	AT THE SUGAR CAMP .	•	•	•	26
IV.	Into the Unknown Country		•	•	41
V.	THE DANGER OF DELAYS				48
VI.	As the Rabbits Hide .				61
VII.	INTO THE TAMARACK SWAMP			•	70
VIII.	THE EAGLES PROVIDE .				79
IX.	THE SPIRIT WOODS .				190
X.	ETAPA COUNTS A COUP .				99
XI.	THEY DANCE TO GRANDFATHE	ER	INYAN		108
XII.	FLIGHT				115
XIII.	THE LITTLE NURSE .				131
XIV.	GOING TO THE ENEMY .				147
XV.	In Black Otter's Camp				163
XVI.	IN THE COUGAR'S LAIR .				172
XVII.	THE CANOE OF THE WASECUN		3.1	*	182
XVIII.	AT THE BIG RIVER .				192
XIX.	THE PONY STEALERS .				197
XX.	THE GRIEF OF FIRE CLOUD A	ND	CRANE	's
	Cry				209
XXI.	A STRANGE BUFFALO .				220
XXII.	A Warrior's Death .				228
XXIII.	THE BIG YELLOW RIVER				241

CONTENTS

	CHAPTER				PAGE
	XXIV.	THE BOAT WHICH WAS NOT ST	RAIGI	IT
		Tongue's	٠	•	248
	XXV.	A Long Trail			256
	XXVI.	THE VALLEY OF DESOLATION .			267
>	XXVII.	"Scili! Scili!"			275
X	XVIII.	THE BUFFALO GHOST WOMEN.			292
	XXIX.	THE BUFFALOES - A VOYAGE BY	Bu	LL
		Воат		•	303
	XXX.	A Parade Fight			319
	XXXI.	THE VOYAGERS ARRIVE			330
2	XXXII.	THE WARRIOR FATHER'S APPEAL			353

NOTE

If the reader will kindly take note of the few helps offered below, the Dakota words used in this story may be pronounced with a degree of confidence.

No vowels are silent. a = a as in father, e = a as in mate, i = e as in me, o = o as in wrote, u = u as in rule. c has the sound of ch, as in march. h and g are gutturals, \acute{s} is sh, j = zh and n is nasal. All other consonants are sounded practically as in English. Zintkala, for instance, is pronounced $Z\bar{e}$ nt kah' la, and Etapa, \bar{A} tah' pa. The pronunciation of Ojibwa words is indicated in the spelling.

F. W. C.