"Dr. Holland will always find a congenial audience in the homes of culture and refinement. He does not affect the play of the darker and fiercer passions, but delights in the sweet images that cluster around the domestic hearth. He cherishes a strong fellow-feeling with the pure and tranquil life in the modest social circles of the American people, and has thus won his way to the companionship of many friendly hearts."

—N. Y. TRIBUNE.

POEMS.

[Each, Small 12mo, $1.25.

BITTER-SWEET.

"It is a suggestive and original poem. Vigor and force and imaginative beauty are to be found in it."—Athenæum.

"A dramatic poem which is characteristically American, showing a great command of versification and purity of style. This poem shows that Dr. Holland is a man of genius."—Boston Post.

KATHRINA.

"It is a genuine outgrowth of the author's poetic instincts and moral convictions. It is sweet with purity and noble with aspiration. It is thoughtful and earnest and most sincere. Its reverence for woman is religious. Dr. Holland will be numbered with Hawthorne as one who saw the soul of beauty under the sordid guise of New England life and character."—Independent.

MISTRESS OF THE MANSE.

"Dr. Holland's writings touch a responsive chord in the heart of the reader. There is a great deal of human nature in what he says. Hence the popularity of Dr. Holland's productions. The 'Mistress of the Manse' is a charming story, admirably told in verse."

—Albany Argus.

THE PURITAN'S GUEST, AND OTHER POEMS.

"If we mistake not, our readers will recognize with us the genius of a true poet, with a rare wealth of poetic sympathies, profound observation of the workings of human passion, and the creative power to clothe his conception in expressive forms."—New York Tribune.

ESSAYS.

Each, Small 12mo, $1.25.

TITCOMB'S LETTERS TO YOUNG PEOPLE.

"We have never read a work which better inculcates the several duties and responsibilities of young men and women, married or single. The strong common sense which pervades them, the frank and manly utterance of wholesome truths in pointed and beautiful language, and the genial sympathy which the author has for those whom he addresses, cannot fail to commend the work to general favor."—London Literary Gazette.

GOLD FOIL HAMMERED FROM POPULAR PROVERBS.

"Sensible and instructive, and deserves to be read and pondered by old and young."—Boston Advertiser.

"Full of good sense and written in good, sound English. They are better than the hammered foil—they are the virgin metal, pure, precious, and solid."—Providence Journal.

LESSONS IN LIFE.

"Wisdom admirably put. We find in the pages of this new venture so many healthy maxims and so much excellent advice, that we hope the volume will spread itself farther and wider than any of its predecessors."—Atlantic Monthly.

CONCERNING THE JONES FAMILY.

"Dr. Holland's Jones family includes in its members many diverse characters, and his remarks upon them are a continuation of his homelike and natural philosophy which has been so highly appreciated."

—San Francisco Alla-California.

PLAIN TALKS ON FAMILIAR SUBJECTS.

"His views are so true, so indisputable, so often disregarded in the practices of this vain world, that we can commend them as a consummate mixture of the useful with the agreeable."—Boston Recorder.

EVERY-DAY TOPICS—First Series, Second Series.

"The volumes include short essays on politics, religion, temperance, education, literature, woman's suffrage, health, dress, amusements, and, indeed, nearly every subject that could engage a magazine editor's attention, all treated in an entertaining style and from a high moral standpoint."—Detroit News.

NOVELS.

Each, Small 12mo, $1.25.

SEVENOAKS.

"One of the best of Dr. Holland's novels. It tells in a graphic and highly moral manner of the apparent success and final downfall of the sleek and wily villain, Belcher, the owner of Sevenoaks. It is written with spirit, and has bits of description and character painting, which, with a plausible plot, holds the reader's attention."

—Philadelphia Press.

ARTHUR BONNICASTLE.

"In 'Arthur Bonnicastle,' as all know, there is an autobiographical element, for which, if for nothing else, it will always be especially cherished by Dr. Holland's admirers."—Buffalo Courier.

"The pleasant ingenuity of tone and faultlessness of moral which characterize the 'Bay-Path' equally distinguish 'Arthur Bonnicastle.' The story is of American college life."

—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

NICHOLAS MINTURN.

"No more wholesome and helpful reading for most minds can be found in the literature of this generation than Dr. Holland's books. The young man or woman who does not rise from 'Arthur Bonnicastle' or 'Nicholas Minturn' stimulated to hopeful effort is either inconceivably stupid or irreclaimably bad."—New London Telegram.

BAY-PATH.

"Beyond doubt one of the most characteristic, deeply interesting, and powerfully-written American novels which we have ever read."

—Philadelphia Bulletin.

"It portrays, in vividly, truthfully painted colors, the struggles of a heroic spirit against the environments of the earliest colonial days of Massachusetts."—St. Paul Dispatch.

MISS GILBERT'S CAREER.

"'Miss Gilbert's Career' contains the amusing but instructive account of the search of a young authoress for a publisher and how, when one was found, he advertised her book—amusing, we mean, to all but publishers."—Worcester Gazette.

. Sevenoaks, and Arthur Bonnicastle are also issued in the Yellow Paper Series, paper covers, 50 cents each.
