TEXT-BOOKS ON HISTORY

FOR HIGHER SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

By D. H. MONTGOMERY,

Author of the "Leading Facts of History Series."

The Student's American History. A text-book for high schools and colleges. 12mo. Cloth. 523 pages with an Appendix of 55 pages of supplementary material. Illustrated. For introduction, $1.40.

The Leading Facts of English History. With maps and tables. 12mo. Cloth. 445 pages. For introduction, $1.12.

The Leading Facts of French History. 12mo. Cloth. 321 pages, with 14 black and colored maps, and full tables. For introduction, $1.12.

MR. MONTGOMERY'S histories are said by all to be, in their departments, unequaled in scholarship, in true historic insight and temper, in interest and class-room availability. They are admittedly the leading text-books on their subjects. Their popularity and wide use have been duly proportionate to their merits. Hundreds of schools have introduced them, and all report the greatest satisfaction.

In the Student's American History the attractive and enduring qualities of Mr. Montgomery's other histories are found in an even higher degree. It follows the same general lines as the Leading Facts of American History. It differs, however, from that manual in several important respects. It is substantially a new work and not simply an expansion of the smaller one. It is much fuller in its treatment of political and constitutional history and of all the chief events in the nation's development.

In Montgomery's English History the important events of that country are treated with great fullness, and their relation to that of Europe and the world is carefully shown.

No pains have been spared to make the execution of the work equal to its plan. Vivid touches here and there betray the author's mastery of details.

The object of Montgomery's French History is to present, within a moderate compass, the most important events of the history of France, selected, arranged, and treated according to the soundest principles of historical study, and set forth in a clear and attractive narrative.

THE LEADING FACTS OF FRENCH HISTORY.

By D. H. MONTGOMERY,

AUTHOR OF THE LEADING FACTS OF ENGLISH HISTORY, ENGLISH HISTORY READER, ETC.

Introduction Price, $1.12.

The object of this volume is to present, within the compass of about two hundred and fifty pages, the most important events of the history of France, selected, arranged, and treated according to the soundest principles of historical study, and set forth in a clear and attractive narrative.

The work is based on the highest French authorities, — Guizot, Rambaud, Martin, and Duruy, — but all points demanding special consideration have been carefully compared with the views of the best English writers on France.

The general plan of treatment is practically the same as that pursued in the author's "Leading Facts of English History." The attention of teachers is particularly called to the following summary: —

1. The respective influences of the Celtic race, and of the Roman and the German conquest and occupation of Gaul are clearly shown.
2. Charlemagne's work and the subsequent growth of feudal institutions are next considered.
3. The breaking up of the feudal system, with the gradual consolidation of the provinces into one kingdom, and the development of the sentiment of nationality, are traced and illustrated.
4. The growth of the absolutism of the crown, the interesting and important relations of France to America, and the causes of the French Revolution are fully presented.
5. The career of Napoleon and its effects on France and Europe are carefully examined.
6. Finally, a sketch is given of the stages of the historical progress of France in connection with the state of the Republic to-day.

The work is illustrated with fourteen Maps and complete Genealogical and Chronological Tables. It is also furnished with explanatory foot-notes where they seem to be required. Each section of the history is followed by a brief summary of the ground gone over.

METHOD IN HISTORY

BY

WILLIAM H. MACE,

Professor of History in Syracuse University, and author of
"A Working Manual of American History."

12mo. Cloth. 311 pages. For introduction, $1.00.

THE work is designed for teachers and students of history, and aims to make conscious the processes involved in studying and teaching this subject. To this end the work first analyzes events and discovers some of the laws and principles of history, and notes their pedagogical significance. A second part, proceeding in the light of the first, explains and illustrates the processes and products involved in the organization of history into a scientific form. Here the mind is traced in the concrete process of working its way through the subject under the guidance of laws and principles. The educational value of the processes employed and of the products wrought out is also discussed. The third portion is devoted to the organization of the different periods and subperiods of American history. This includes the analysis of the facts of each period till the organizing principle is discovered, and the application of the principle to the interpretation and ranking of events.

The preceding discussions deal with the logical phase of history work, the phase adapted to the more mature student. The fourth part of the work, holding in view this logical ideal of the subject and the unfolding of the immature mind, treats of the elementary phases of history teaching. As a whole the book presents, in concrete form, a rational pedagogy of history.

ASTRONOMY

By CHARLES A. YOUNG, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of Astronomy in Princeton University, Princeton, N.J., and author of The Sun.

*A Series of text-books on astronomy for high schools, academies, and colleges.
Prepared by one of the most distinguished astronomers of the world, a most popular lecturer, and a most successful teacher.*

Lessons in Astronomy. Including Uranography. Revised Edition. 12mo. Cloth. Illustrated. 366 pages, exclusive of four double-page star maps. For introduction, $1.20.

Elements of Astronomy. With a Uranography. 12mo. Half leather. 472 pages, and four star maps. For introduction, $1.40.

Uranography. From the Elements of Astronomy. Flexible covers. 42 pages, besides four star maps. For introduction, 30 cents.

General Astronomy. A text-book for colleges and technical schools. 8vo. 551 pages. Half morocco. Illustrated with over 250 cuts and diagrams, and supplemented with the necessary tables. For introduction, $2.25.

The Lessons in Astronomy (recently brought up to date) was prepared for schools that desire a brief course free from mathematics. Everything has been carefully worked over and rewritten to adapt it to the special requirements. Great pains have been taken not to sacrifice accuracy and truth to brevity, and no less to bring everything thoroughly up to the present time.

The Elements of Astronomy is an independent work, and not an abridgment of the author's General Astronomy. It is a text-book for advanced high schools, seminaries, and brief courses in colleges generally. Special attention has been paid to making all statements correct and accurate so far as they go.

The eminence of Professor Young as an original investigator in astronomy, a lecturer and writer on the subject, and an instructor in college classes, led the publishers to present the General Astronomy with the highest confidence; and this confidence has been fully justified by the event. It is conceded to be the best astronomical text-book of its grade to be found anywhere.
