THREE STUDIES IN LITERATURE.

BY

LEWIS EDWARDS GATES,

Assistant Professor of English in Harvard University.

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50.

FRANCIS JEFFREY.
CARDINAL NEWMAN.
MATTHEW ARNOLD.

ASPECTS OF THE
ROMANTIC PERIOD OF ENGLISH LITERATURE

"Professor Gates is fortunate in his subjects; his subjects are fortunate in his justly discriminating appreciation. The reader is fortunate in his illuminating treatment of these notable characters, often misunderstood and disparaged,—the brilliant reviewer, the spiritual rhetorician, the humanistic critic. These masterly Studies should be in the hands of all students of our literature in this century."

NATIONAL STUDIES IN AMERICAN LETTERS

Old Cambridge

BY

THOMAS WENTWORTH HIGGINSON

Cloth. 12mo. Price $1.25

" . . . Some charmingly reminiscent pages, having for their subject the three authors most widely associated with Old Cambridge, — Holmes, Longfellow, and Lowell; and their pleasant gossip makes up the major part of the volume, which is altogether a most enjoyable and valuable one." — Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

" It is just the sort of book that one would expect from the author, graceful in form, abounding in the genuine atmosphere of the old university town, full of pleasant personal anecdotes and reminiscences of the Cambridge of forty or fifty years ago. Many great figures pass across the stage, with nearly all of whom Colonel Higginson was personally acquainted; and this intimacy gives the book a charming flavor." — Brooklyn Life.

" The book contains material to be had nowhere else, for it is a commentary on the side history of a great epoch in American letters, written by one who had a place in it." — San Francisco Argonaut.

" What he has to tell will be interesting to every person who honors New England and sets store by her literature. The book is steeped in the Attic dew of which the Cambridge cicadas were fond; it has a smack of ambrosia, — American ambrosia, — and its leaves rustle with the unmistakable Parnassian suggestion — a Puritan Parnassus to be sure. . . . The Cambridge he dwells upon is the Cambridge of the Boston circle of poets, philosophers, politicians, reformers, scholars, statesmen, preachers, and divine cranks. He sketches everything and everybody freely, swiftly, and lightly." — Independent.
