REV. MOTHER FLORENCE.

This new institution, under the direction of the Sisters of Divine Providence, is situated on an eminence, commanding an extensive view of the Alamo City.

The building is a massive structure whose spacious halls and well ventilated apartments, were especially designed for the promotion of health and comfort of the pupils.

The object of this Academy is the adorning of the pupils' minds with knowledge and the training of their hearts to virtue. The pupils are formed to habits of order and cleanliness and polite manners, so that they may go forth from the Sisters' care the pride of the home circle and the ornament of society.

RELIGION.

The religious instruction of the pupils is attended to with the greatest solicitude. Pupils of all denominations are admitted and their religious opinions unrestricted; however, for the sake of order and uniformity all are requested to follow the exterior exercise of worship.

San Antonio's Young Progressive Mayor.

MARSHALL HICKS was born August 26th, 1865, at Rusk, Cherokee county, Texas. When about six years of age he removed to Shreveport, Louisiana, where he received his primary education at the Thatcher Institute. In 1882 he entered the Southwestern Presbyterian University at Clarksville, Tennessee, graduating at that institution in the Class of '86 with the degree of B. A. In September of that year he entered the Law Department of the University of Texas, at Austin, and graduated in the class of '88 with the degree of B. L. He began the practice of law at Mineola, Texas, in the fall of 1888, and in 1890 removed to the City of San Antonio for the practice of his profession, forming a partnership with R. U. Culberson.

In 1891 he was appointed by Governor Hogg District Attorney of the Forty-Ninth Judicial District of Texas, comprising the counties of Webb, Encinal, Duval and Zapata. In the fall of 1892 he was re-elected to the position of District Attorney and held that office until January, 1895, when he removed to San Antonio and formed a partnership with Col. E. R. Lane of that city, and later with his brother Yale Hicks. In 1897 he was elected alderman of the city of San Antonio, and in 1899 as a candidate for Mayor defeated the Hon. Bryan Callaghan, and two years later was re-elected to the position of Mayor by over three thousand majority.

Mr. Hicks served as a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee during the years 1891 and 1892, and has always taken an active interest in the welfare of the Democratic party, having been elected temporary chairman of the State Democratic convention at Waco in 1900.

PEACOCK'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

WEST END, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

1. It is a well equipped boarding school. We exercise supervision over the boys day and night. A competent Matron.
2. We have a Military Department. It is not a Military school.
3. It is a select school. Only young men of good reputation at home are admitted. Cigarette smoking is not permitted.
4. The school is three and a half miles from San Antonio, protecting the boys against the temptations of the city.
5. The uniform is conducive to uprightness of carriage and neatness of dress. Daily inspection is made of the boys' rooms, and of their personal appearance. Table manners are exacted.
6. We develop character. We put the boys on their honor; but we help them to stand on it. You must help a boy be good. There are lessons not found in text books.
7. It is not a church school. It is the property of the Principal. A Christian influence is exerted.
8. Our classes are small. We aim at the individual. We help the backward boys.
9. We prepare for college. Our graduates go to college.
10. The new brick building is heated with hot air, lighted with gas, supplied with artesian water. We place two boys in a room, each on a single iron bed. Bath, closets, lavatories on each floor.

Academy of the Incarnate Word

Brackenridge Villa.

This Institution, conducted by the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, is situated on Alamo Heights, in one of the most picturesque spots of the historic city of San Antonio.

It is conceded that there is not in the city a more charming site for an academy, as the place has long been famous for its great natural beauty.

The grounds are spacious, comprising over 200 acres.

The River Avenue car, which connects with all the lines of the city, passes the academy.

While so accessible; the situation has all the advantages of that quiet and retirement so essential to study and improvement.

The course pursued embraces all the branches of a thorough and refined English education, and is divided into

PRIMARY, PREPARATORY, ACADEMIC AND SUPERIOR DEPARTMENT.

The system of government combines strict discipline with kind and gentle treatment. The pupils are at all times under the immediate care of the Sisters.

The scholastic year begins the first Monday in September and ends the last week in June.
