1. Una preposición conecta una parte de la oración con otra.

Cuando un preposición se combina con un sustantivo o pronombre, la combinación se llama una frase preposicional.

La preposición de lugar se utiliza para indicar donde se encuentra un lugar, una cosa o una persona (in, at, on, between, among).

- a) "In" da la idea de un lugar cerrado (caja, bolsa, cuarto, recipiente, etc.)

The balls are in the box.

"In" también puede ser usado para referirse a un "sistema", "organización" o "fórmula".

Las preposiciones de tiempo más comúnmente utilizadas son: at, during, from, in, on, to.

The class begins at ten o'clock.

"At" se utiliza con las diferentes etapas del día (mañana, tarde, noche, etc.)

I go to school at night.

I go to work at noon. → mediodía

Hay tres casos en los que no se utiliza at.

2. La forma verbal llamada presente progresivo se utiliza para expresar un evento o acción que está sucediendo ahora o en forma temporal.

El presente progresivo se forma con el verbo be (utilizado como auxiliar) + el presente participio del verbo que se esté empleando.

Pronombre Be P. Participio.

I	am	working
You	are	working
He, she, it	is	working
We	are	working
You	are	working
They	are	working

¿Cómo se forma el presente participio de la comúnmente llamada forma ing?

A continuación mencionaremos las principales reglas para formarlo. Son muy sencillas pero a la vez importantes.

a) Normalmente sólo necesitamos agregar ing al infinitivo o verbo base.

bring → bringing eat → eating

They're bringing home the new car today; (fall)

A lot of rocks are falling on the highway;

(eat) Our baby is eating with a spoon now.

b) Cuando el verbo base termina en e muda, entonces se elimina la e y se agrega ing.

change → changing take → taking drive → driving save → saving

(change) They are changing my schedule today;

(take) She is taking a few courses in anthropology this semester; (live) Nobody is living on the moon; (save) We're saving money for a rainy day; (drive) They're driving a beautiful new car.

c) Cuando un verbo de una sola sílaba termine en ie, la ie se elimina, se agrega una y + ing.

lie → lying die → dying

(lie) The dog is lying in front of the fireplace; (die) Unfortunately, the patient is dying.

d) Las palabras terminadas en y, simplemente se les agrega la ing carry → carrying copy → copying stay → staying

e) Cuando el verbo base termina con una sola consonante precedida por una sola vocal, entonces la consonante final se duplica antes de agregar la terminación ing.

run → running begin → beginning get → getting stop → stopping

NOTA: El verbo BE nunca es usado en el presente progresivo como verbo principal a excepción de cuando va seguido por un adjetivo.

The children are being good today.

2.1 La negación del presente progresivo o continuo se forma poniendo not entre el verbo be (el auxiliar) y el verbo principal.

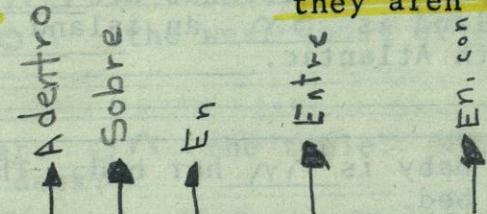

Pron.	Be	V. Principal
I	am not	working
You	are not	working
He, she, it	is not	working
We	are not	working
You	are not	working
They	are not	working

2.2 La interrogación del presente progresivo o continuo se forma poniendo el sujeto de la oración entre el verbo be (el auxiliar) y el verbo principal.

Be	Sujeto	Verbo principal
Am	I	working?
Are	you	working?
Is	he, she, it	working?
Are	we	working?
Are	you	working?
Are	they	working?

Para la respuesta corta se utiliza sólo el verbo be (el auxiliar).

I am	I'm not
you are	you aren't
Yes, he, she, it is	No, he, she, it isn't
we are	we aren't
you are	you aren't
