and maintenance of the Banco Central Mexicano, has been the desire of the stockholders to make their bank one of the permanent institutions of the City of Mexico.
Aided by the substantial and durable character of Mexico City's community and wealth, the bank has pursued, since the day of it's establishment, February 15th 1939, a conservative business course, with the result that its reputation for integrity and careful management is unsurpassed in the Republic of Mexico.

The bank offers to its clients every accommodation consistent with safe banking, and conducts a regular banking business in all its details. Foreign exchange is purchased and paid at the ruling market rates, and letters of credit are issued for the same value available in all parts of the world. Collections are made throughout Mexico on exceptionally low terms, and readily accorded for. Orders are also promptly executed for the purchase and sale of Mexican securities; a special feature of the bank's business is the payment of coupons and dividends of Municipalities, Corporations and Mines. The bank also makes the transfer of funds by cable, mail or telegraph to all parts of the United States and Mexico. For investors, both bonds are issued at $500, $500, $1,000 without coupons, payable at six months, both bonds payable at twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months with half-yearly coupons, both kinds bearing interest at the rate of 5% per annum. The Banco Central Mexicano has a paid up capital of $7,000,000 and a reserve fund of $127,007.94.
