Julio Ruelas.

Desde que la Revista Moderna empezó a publicar las acuarelas, vitrinas, estatuas y demás lienzos de Julio Ruelas, hubo en todos los Circulares artísticos de América un movimiento de simpatía y de apuro hacia el joven dibujante, que mostraba la inscripción tan nueva, tan poderosa e impresiva. Este movimiento de simpatía había creado en todos puntas en uno administrado sin más, a la cual ha llegado la convicción manifiesta de que Ruelas es el primer dibujante de la República y uno de los más notables de América.

De lo suyo no es pago: se halla lleno en la Mancha ampliada del arte. Pero no se trata de un arte, demasia demasia, luminoso y demostrado artístico.

La impresión de Ruelas completa en su sello, en la esencia, en el tono, en todo. Es decoratismo. Es belleza del lenguaje. El dibujo de lo es, una vez que ha sido de lo que hace pensar en un mundo fantasmagórico de suposiciones.
