

- Professio fidei*, 21.—Ab omnibus in futurum emittenda, et Actis inserenda, 63.
Pueri ab ipso pastore doctrinam christianam edocendi, 46.

Q

- Questiones* quædam circa quas Concilii opinio a S. Sede postulata est, 24.

R

- Regulæ* in congregationibus tam privatis quam publicis servandæ, 10.
Residentia ab episcopis servanda, eorumque absentia a quibus probanda, 45.
Rituale Romanum accurate servandum, 44.—Quæstio agitur quid in proxima Ritualis editione sit mutandum, vel addendum, 31.—Sed nihil ea de re statutum, 35.

S

- Sacerdotes* vagi et ignoti quibus conditionibus in alias dioceses admittendi, 46.
Scholæ ad erudiendam juventutem erigendæ, quæ unicuique ecclesiæ sint annexæ, 47.
Sedes Episcopales quædam eriguntur, aliarum vero erectio differtur, 63.—Quomodo de novarum Sedium erectione, et Episcoporum nominatione, actum fuerit in Concilio, 9.
Seminaria ecclesiastica. Unum saltem in unaquaque Provincia erigendum, 47.—Studiorum curriculum pro eis describendi munus tribus Patribus demandatur, 37.
Sepultura ecclesiastica deneganda iis quorum corpora sepeliuntur in cæmeteriis sectarum, vel profanis, quando adsunt cæmeteria catholica, 44.
Societas ad propagandam fidem in his Provinciis extendenda, 48.—Societatem ad catholicas scholas sustentandas, alteramque ad jura fidelium fuenda, instituere abnuunt Patres, 37.
Societas juventutis catholicæ amica laudatur, 13.
Sodalitas precum pro acatholicorum conversione instituitur, 49, 59.
Superioribus Ordinum et Congregationum religiosarum competit jus non nisi consultivum in congregationibus publicis, 26.

T

- Titulus* ad sacros ordines adeo necessarius, ut, eo deficiente, ordinatus eo ipso suspensus intelligatur, 62.—Potestas ordinandi ad titulum missionis in his Provinciis ad quinquennium a die 1 Januarii 1853 conceditur, 58.

V

- Vincennensis* Episcopus propter legitimas causas a Concilio absens, 8.

EXPLICIT INDEX.

November, 1853.

STANDARD CATHOLIC BOOKS,

RECENTLY PUBLISHED BY

MURPHY &amp; CO., 178 MARKET STREET, BALTIMORE.

Just published, in 2 vols. 8vo. cloth lettered, $3 75.

The Power of the Pope in the Middle Ages;

Or, Historical Researches into the Origin of the Temporal Sovereignty of the Holy See, and on the Constitutional Law of the Middle Ages relative to the Deposition of Sovereigns; preceded by an Introduction respecting the Honors and Temporal Prerogatives accorded to Religion and its Ministers by the Ancient Nations, particularly under the first Christian Emperors. By M. GOSSELIN, Director of the Seminary of St. Sulpice, Paris. Translated by the Rev. MATTHEW KELLY, Professor of French and "Belles Lettres" at St. Patrick's College, Maynooth.

Just published in 3 vols. 8vo., handsomely printed. Cloth lettered, $6 50.

Cardinal Wiseman's Essays on Various Subjects.

Messrs. MURPHY & CO. have the pleasure of announcing, that they have entered into such arrangements with Mr. Dolman, the London Publisher, as enable them to supply the American Market with Cardinal Wiseman's Essays, at Four Dollars less than the London publisher's price for the same edition. They hope that the liberal spirit thus manifested on the part of the London publisher, will be duly appreciated by the American public, and that it will answer the desired end—to render unnecessary the republication of the work in this country.

The learned Dr. BROWNSON says: "We are glad to see these admirable Essays of his Eminence Cardinal Wiseman, the greater part of which were originally published in The Dublin Review, collected and given to the public in these three handsomely printed volumes. They constitute one of the richest contributions that have recently been made to our English Catholic literature. They bear to us the marks of a varied and extensive erudition, which we seldom look for out of Italy or Germany; are written in a style of singular freshness and beauty, vivacity and force, ease and dignity, which may well be studied as a model.

"These Essays are divided into three classes. The first, which fills the first volume, consists of Scriptural Essays, and papers designed to bring out the beauties of the Catholic ritual, of Catholic practices, and of Catholic devotions. The second class, making up the second volume, with the exception of the last article, is entirely devoted to the High-Church question, or, as it used to be called, the Oxford Controversy. The third class is made up of essays of a more miscellaneous character,—historical, aristical, archaeological, and controversial; but all are subjects of great interest and importance to every Catholic. It is difficult to speak of these Essays in language which to those who have not carefully read them, will not seem to be exaggerated. They are marked by great clearness of apprehension and expression, depth and originality of thought, a rich imagination, a cultivated taste, and a tender devotional spirit. They are in style and manner genuinely English, admirably adapted to the tastes and peculiarities of the English mind, but rigidly orthodox and even ascetic in their soul. We have in them great artistic beauty, high appreciation of the æsthetic, and a strong disposition to press into the service of religion sensibility, taste, and imagination, but we have nothing weak, morbid, or fanciful, and all is strong, healthy, and robust, under the regimen of good sense and enlightened devotion. We are pleased, delighted, charmed, as we read them, and at the same time enlightened, elevated, and invigorated."

CARDINAL WISEMAN'S WORKS.

- Cardinal Wiseman's Lectures* on the Connexion between Science and Revealed Religion. With Maps and Plates.....2 vols. 12mo. cloth 3 00
Cardinal Wiseman's Lectures on the Offices and Ceremonies of Holy Week. With 10 Illustrations.....12mo. cloth 1 00
Cardinal Wiseman's Lectures on the Real Presence of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Blessed Eucharist. Embellished with a fine Portrait of his Eminence.....12mo. cloth 1 00
Cardinal Wiseman's Lectures on the Principal Doctrines and Practices of the Catholic Church.....12mo. cloth 1 00
Cardinal Wiseman's Essays.....3 vols. 8vo. cloth 6 50

The world wide reputation of the author of the foregoing works, as one of the most forcible writers and learned men of the age,—and the extensive demand for his writings, in this country and in Europe, render it superfluous to add any of the numerous and flattering notices of the Press.

Just Published, in Pamphlet form, to correspond with former Councils. Price 37½ cts.

Concilium Plenarium

Totius Americæ Septentrionalis Federatæ Baltimore Habitum Anno 1852.

Preparing for immediate publication, uniform with the Councils,

Decreta Conciliorum

Baltimorensium Provincialium et Plenarii, pro majori Cleri Americani commoditate, simul Collecta.

Just published, in 1 vol., 8vo., cloth, illustrated with a Map of Palestine, price $2.50. Library style $3.

DR. DIXON'S CELEBRATED WORK ON THE SACRED SCRIPTURES.

A General Introduction to the Sacred Scriptures,

In a Series of Dissertations, Critical, Hermeneutical and Historical. By the Rev. JOSEPH DIXON, D. D., Professor of Sacred Scripture and Hebrew in the Royal College of St. Patrick, Maynooth, (now Archbishop of Armagh, and Primate of all Ireland.)

This work is comprised in one volume, of about 500 pages 8vo., embellished with a Map of Palestine. It is carefully printed from a good, clear, bold type, substantially bound in cloth lettered, and sold at $2.50 per copy; being less than one-half the price of the Dublin edition.

The Dublin Review, in noticing this work at its first appearance, says: "Dr. Dixon has given us the first Catholic Introduction to Scripture, which has appeared in our language, and has performed his task in a manner that reflects high credit on the office which he holds, and the place in which he occupies it."

"It is certainly a valuable general introduction to the study of the Sacred Scriptures, if not for the more advanced scholars, at least for our seminaries and the general reader. It is, so far as our language is concerned, a most important contribution to sacred literature. We welcome it, as we do the excellent Biblical writings of the learned Archbishop of Baltimore, most heartily, not only for its positive merits, but for the new spring it will give in our mother country and among ourselves to sacred literature, which has for a long time been much neglected. We thank the most reverend author for his work, and we thank also Messrs. Murphy & Co. for their very neat and convenient American edition of it."

Brownson's Review.

Just published, in small 8vo., cloth lettered, $1.00.

Kate Gearey; or, Irish Life in London. A Tale of 1849, by Miss MASON.

Just published, in 1 vol. 12mo., cloth 75 cts., paper 50 cts.

Justo Ueundono, Prince of Japan.

This work was written for the purpose of supplying a defect, that no doubt many of our readers have frequently felt, in the Catholic literature of our language. It treats of the evidences of natural and revealed religion, but free from that dry and uninteresting manner, which usually accompanies the mere philosophical treatise. The various opponents to religion and morality are brought before a young prince, whose education, though sedulously attended to, has been removed from all influence of prejudice, and whose mind left to the guidance of common sense, soon discovers the sophistry of the Atheist, the foolishness of the Pagan, and the groundless character of every other worship but that of the Christian religion, in which he is led step by step to the acknowledgment of the only true Faith in the Holy Roman Catholic Church. In the accomplishment of this the author, as we judge, has levied no tax upon the credulity of his readers. Every part is naturally connected, prosecuted without any aim at effect, from the demonstration of the existence of God and the necessity of worship until all that He requires of His creatures is made known to them by those, whom He has empowered to teach in His place. We are satisfied that many of our liberally educated countrymen will welcome this work with eagerness, as its tendency is to ensure tranquillity on topics, on which they have more than once felt themselves tormented. They cannot but derive great advantage from its perusal.

Recently published, in 8vo., paper 50 cts.

Catholic Interests in the Nineteenth Century,

By the Count DE MONTALEMBERT, Member of the French Academy.

"Licet inter abruptam contumaciam et defame pergere iter, periculis vacuum."—Tacitus. The Dublin Review, in noticing this work, says:—"Few writers and statesmen have rendered, at so early an age, such important services to the Church and to society, as the upright and virtuous, the learned and eloquent nobleman, whose last essay stands at the head of our article. Scarcely had he left the university, when in the periodical press he obtained distinction as a Catholic publicist, and before his age permitted him to take his hereditary seat in the senate of his country, he eloquently defended at its bar, with other distinguished friends, the liberties of the Church and of Catholic education. When at last invested with the dignity of a peer, he devoted for fifteen years his uninterrupted energies, whether as a writer or an orator, to the defence of the most sacred interests of religion and humanity."

"This is a very fair translation of the admirable brochure of M. Montalembert, already noticed with high commendation in our pages, and which we wish every body would read, not only for its own sake, but for the sake of its noble author."

Brownson's Review.

Just published; a new edition, reduced to 50 cts. in cloth; gilt edges, 75 cts.

Lazarine; or Duty once understood Religiously Fulfilled.

Translated from the French.

"We have seldom read a more interesting and instructive Catholic tale, than is contained in this book. It is precisely a novel of that sort which is wanted for the entertainment and instruction of youth. It may well serve as a model of this kind of writing, to those whose talents seem to qualify them for this department of fiction. Its tone is thoroughly Catholic, though the incidents are not such as to give it a too grave or religious a character. The author had the happy talent of mingling the useful and agreeable, without drawing from those scenes of corruption which are so frequent in fashionable life, and which serve no other purpose in books of fiction, than to beget temptations and expose the virtue and innocence of youth. The plot of the theory is ingenious, and evinces great powers of imagination, and the style of the writer is natural and easy. It is a work that ought to be widely circulated, because it is calculated to produce the most salutary impressions upon the minds of young persons who are living under the parental roof."

Metropolitan.

Recently Published in 5 vols. 8vo., cloth $10; library style, marbled edges, $12.

Bishop England's Works, published under the auspices and immediate superintendence of the Rt. Rev. Bishop REYNOLDS, the present Bishop of Charleston.

The subjects of these volumes present attractions, not only to the inquirer after religious truth; but to the Statesman and the Lawyer they present much that is worthy of their study, as well for the subject matter, as for the style of the writer, and the simplicity of the language which he used to embody the analytical deductions made by his gigantic mind. His Discourses furnish Models of Oratory worthy of imitation by Divines, Statesmen, and members of the Legal Profession. It is difficult to say in what Dr. England excelled,—as an Orator, he was great, sublime, thrilling;—as a Theologian, his profound erudition, and familiarity with the writings of the Fathers of the Church, and with Ecclesiastical History of all ages, and all countries, place him high amongst the highest:—as a Controversialist, the evenness of his temper, the lucidity of his reasoning, and the force of his language, command for him the respect of his antagonist, and the admiration of all his readers.

"We trust that Protestant and Catholic will vie with each other in showing that they love literature and appreciate worth, without regard to sectarian prejudice."

Charleston Courier.

"They deserve to take their place as contributions to American literature on the shelves of our libraries, and to find readers beyond the pale of the religious belief of their writer."

N. Y. Literary World.

Just Published in 1 vol. 8vo., cloth, $2.

White's Sermons for the Different Sundays and Principal Festivals of the year; with a few additional Sermons on various important subjects. By the late Rev. THOMAS WHITE, of Winchester. Selected and arranged from his MSS. by the late Rev. JOHN LINGARD, D. D. Second Edition.

"We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of this very excellent and very instructive book, being the second London Edition, published simultaneously in London and Baltimore. The author of these Sermons, the Rev. Thomas White, was educated at the English College in Douai, where he received the order of Priesthood. He was an excellent scholar, possessing a correct taste and great classical acquirements. At his death he left among his papers a considerable number of discourses, some of which he had purchased, and others written for the instruction of his congregations. These Sermons are written with an eloquence which delights the imagination, while the earnestness of conviction and the spirit of piety which they breathe, interests and improves the heart. The volume is well got up, printed in excellent style and on superior litho paper, and published at a price which places it at the command of every one. We recommend the work to the patronage of our readers."

Truth Teller.

The Ceremonial, for the use of the Catholic Churches in the United States of America. Published by order of the First Council of Baltimore—with the approbation of the Holy See. To which is prefixed an Explanation of the Ceremonies. Carefully revised. . . . . 12mo. $1.00

Manual of Ceremonies, for the use of the Catholic Churches of the United States of America. Published by order of the First Council of Baltimore—with the approbation of the Holy See. . . . . 12mo. 50 cts.

Explanation of the Ceremonies in use in the Catholic Churches of the United States of America; extracted from the Works of the late Right Rev. Bishop England. . . . . 18mo. cloth 38 cts.

The Boston Pilot says: "These three acceptable additions to our stock of Catholic books came from the press of Murphy, of Baltimore. It is useless, now-a-days, to say that his publications are well got up, for everybody knows that they are. Any house might be proud of the appearance of these books."

"The first is an elaborate work, published by order of the Council of Baltimore, and it is a complete manual for the master of ceremonies, and for learners. Every priest should have it. An explanation of the ceremonies, by Bishop England, is prefixed to the work. The manual, being a translation of Baldeschi's great work, is of authority. Bishop Rosati's name is sufficient to guarantee a good translation. This book was written for ecclesiastics, but it is also adapted to the use of all persons who wish to study the ceremonies of the Church, or to follow them minutely on festival days."

"The second book is one which was compiled for small churches, where there is only one priest, who nevertheless, performs the functions of all the festivals. This statement shows the value of the book to all pastors who serve churches singly. This work is also a translation from Baldeschi, and it was published by order of the Council, it is therefore standard authority."

"The third of the above penned works is a clear, comprehensive, learned, yet familiar explanation of the ceremonies approved for Catholic Churches. It is extracted from the works of Bishop England, and it comprises certain lectures given by him at Rome, on the subject. It is a small book, well calculated to accompany any manual of prayers. We cordially recommend it to the faithful."

Just published, in 1 vol. 16mo., flexible cloth; price 12 1/2 cents.

On Fashions.

Translated from the French of FATHER BOONE, S. J.

"This is a small book, but it has a great spirit, and is one which we recommend all parents to read and study, and all fashionable people to commit to memory. It is painful to reflect how many souls are ruined by what passes for fashionable dress, or what is more properly denominated address."

Brownson's Rev.

Just Published, Miniature Editions of

The Little Testament of our Lord Jesus Christ; or an Admonition,

Aspiration, and Practice, for each day. Price 6 cents.

The Little Testament of the Holy Virgin. Translated from the French. Revised by a Clergyman. Price 6 cents.

BALMES' GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION!

Third Edition, 8vo., paper, $1 50; cloth, $2; library style, $2 50.

Protestantism and Catholicity Compared in their Effects on the Civilization of Europe. By the Rev. J. BALMES.

The Publishers have the pleasure to announce that near three thousand copies of this Great Work were sold in about twelve months. It has been noticed in the most favorable terms by the press throughout the country. Every one who takes an interest in the subject ought to have a copy of this GREAT WORK of the Age, that he might read it himself and lend it to his neighbor.

Recently published, in one large volume of 763 pages, 8vo. cloth, $2 25; library style, $2 50; arabesque gilt backs, $3 00.

The Catholic Pulpit, containing a Sermon for every Sunday and Holiday in the Year and for Good Friday; with several Occasional Discourses.

"We know of no language sufficiently forcible in which to urge upon our readers the excellence of 'The Catholic Pulpit.' The Sermons contained in it may well compete with the most elaborate productions of Fenelon or Bossuet. Though no Anglo-Saxon, we feel a kind of pride in contemplating the gorgeous form in which the English language can clothe ideas, of which the work before us is a standing testimony." Toronto Mirror.

LIBRARY EDITIONS OF FREDET'S HISTORIES.

In 2 volumes 12mo., Cloth $2 50; Library Style, Marbled Edges, $3.

Another edition for Schools, 2 vols. 12mo., 88 cents per vol.

Either volume will be sold separately.

Ancient History, from the Dispersion of the Sons of Noe, to the Battle of Actium, and change of the Roman Republic into an Empire. By PETER FREDET, D. D., Professor of History in St. Mary's College, Baltimore. Second edition, carefully revised and enlarged.

Modern History, from the Coming of Christ and the change of the Roman Republic into an Empire, to the year of our Lord 1850. By PETER FREDET, D. D., Professor of History in St. Mary's College, Baltimore. Sixth enlarged and improved edition.

The Publishers are happy to announce that they have just issued new, enlarged and improved editions of the above works, in uniform style. Each volume contains about five hundred pages, and may justly be considered the cheapest, most authentic and convenient works of reference published. The two volumes form a complete connection or continuous chain of historical events from the Creation of the World to the year 1850. Every one who desires to consult reliable history, should procure these works for his library. The distinguished and wide spread reputation of the author as a historian, and Professor of History in St. Mary's College for the last twenty years, and the universal favor with which these works have been received, precludes the necessity of giving any of the numerous complimentary and flattering testimonials that have been so freely extended to them by the American Press.

The London Catholic Standard says: "These two excellent manuals of history have a wide and increasing circulation in America, and are everywhere held in the highest esteem. The compiler, Dr. Fredet, has been professor of history in St. Mary's College, Baltimore, for more than twenty years, and has won to himself a high reputation for his great acquirements and admirable skill as a professor. His well earned fame will suffer no diminution from the publication of these two excellent volumes. He has achieved a task of no ordinary difficulty, in compressing so much recondite matter into so small a space; in leaving untold nothing that was of note of the immense and varied annals of the world. The two volumes combined afford to the student a valuable and well-digested synopsis of remarkable events, of change of dynasty, from the Assyrian empire to the late presidency of Prince Louis Napoleon. To the volume of 'Modern History' is appended a series of notes on events of striking interest—such as the Conquest of Ireland, the Massacre of St. Bartholomew, the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, which are well worthy the reader's attention. No college, school or library ought to be without these excellent works."

The Dublin Tablet says: "These two volumes are plain, copious, and useful summaries of ancient and modern history, and the number of editions through which they have passed will show their popularity in the Catholic schools of the United States. We observe that in the earlier portion of ancient history the compiler generally follows the old established view of the Rollins and Bossuets, and gives the popular, matter-of-fact narrative of events, like the Trojan war, the history of Romulus, &c. &c. This, after all, is the best plan. Any misconceptions are easily corrected by the tutor, whilst summaries which are constructed on the modern theories of critics, like Niebuhr, labor under a variety of disadvantages. In the first place, such theories, were they ever so ingenious, are continually changing. In Grecian history, Grote would throw aside, with utter scepticism, 'myths,' in which Thirlwall is ready to recognise some traces of fact, and probably a future historian will subject the same to some new and totally different analyses. The simplest plan, therefore, for beginners is to state just what the ancients believed of their early history, at the same time reminding them of the many disputes, which exist on the subject. For young minds, also, nothing can be more injurious than a doubting, sceptical manner of teaching even secular history. The Modern History is carried down to a late period, the year 1850, and furnishes a convenient introduction to impart to the youthful reader an acquaintance with the contemporary events of Europe and America."

The Little Testament of the Holy Virgin. Translated from the French. Revised by a Jesuit.

Just Published in 1 vol. 18mo., cloth, 50 cts.; cloth, gilt edges and sides, 75 cts.

St. Liguori on the Religious State.—Duties and Advantages of the Religious State; or Lesser Works of St. Alphonsus relating to the Religious State. Translated from the Italian by a Priest of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer. This little work forms a complete Treatise on the "Vocation to the Religious State."

"We have perused this little work, placed on our table by the publishers, with no little amount of pleasure and edification. As a means of ascertaining one's vocation in life, it is invaluable to youth. Age, too, may meditate on its words and precepts with benefit. We would advise every parent to purchase this little work and present it to their children, when about to choose a pathway through the thickets and morasses of life. The choice of a state of life is most important, as on it hangs our small pittance of happiness on this side of the grave, and our eternal welfare beyond it. True, indeed, are the words of the Scripture: 'Unusquisque proprium donum habet a Deo.' Truth Teller.

Just Published, in a neat 24mo. with 15 Fine Illustrations; price in cloth 12 1/2 cts.

The Rosary of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary: with the Litany of Loretto, and other Devotions. Translated and arranged by a Priest of the Order of Charity. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop Kenrick.

This edition is embellished with 15 beautiful Engravings, illustrating each Mystery. It is neatly printed on fine paper, and can be recommended with confidence as the neatest and cheapest edition of this little book of devotions ever presented to the Catholic community.

Just published, beautifully illustrated; price per dozen sheets, 38 cents.

Circles of the Living Rosary, for every month of the year, with Aspirations, &c., and the Names of the Patron Saints.

Recently Published, in a neat 32mo. volume; price in paper 6 1/2; cloth 12 1/2 cts.

The Holy Way of the Cross, with Devout Exercises for the Fourteen Stations. Illustrated with Beautiful Engravings, by an Eminent Artist.

"This is the neatest edition of the Stations which we have yet seen. It is prefaced by a short introduction, and illustrated by fine engravings." Pittsburg Catholic.

Recently published, in 1 vol. 32mo., cloth, 25 cts.; cloth, gilt edges, 38 cts.

A Treatise on General Confessions by way of Familiar Conversations between Confessor and Penitent. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop Kenrick.

"The title of this book will cause frequent inquiry for it. It is approved by the Archbishops of Dublin and of Baltimore, wherefore it is safe reading, even for scrupulous persons. It seems to be a judicious treatise by an experienced Director, in which penitents are told when a general confession is necessary, useful, or unadvisable, and how it should be made. The argument is in the form of a familiar dialogue between Confessor and Penitent." Boston Pilot.

Just Published in 1 vol. superroyal 8vo., price $1 50.

Peters' Catholic Harmonist; a Collection of Sacred Music appropriate for Morning and Evening Services; consisting of Motetts, Masses, Hymns, Chants, &c., suitable to the Principal Festivals throughout the Year: composed, selected and arranged for the use of Small Choirs, with a separate Accompaniment for the Organ and Piano Forte. By W. C. PETERS.

Just Published in 1 volume, 12mo., 75 cents.

Willitoff, or the Days of James the First. A TALE. By JAMES McSHERRY, Esq., author of McSherry's History of Maryland.

"This is a very pretty and interesting Catholic story, not at all wanting in talent or scenic effect. It portrays the persecutions inflicted on Catholics in England at that period. The Catholic priest, the Catholic family, and the concomitants of its associations and persecutions are drawn with a good deal of sympathetic feeling. This is a story of merit, and of a moral tone which we like and greatly commend. We hope the author may be encouraged by an extensive sale." Freeman's Journal.

Just Published, in 1 vol. 18mo., half-bound, price per dozen $1 50.

Katolischer Katechismus. [Catholic Catechism.] Verfasst von Johann Nep. Neumann, Bischof von Philadelphia. Zehnte Auflage. Mit Genehmigung des National Conciliums von Baltimore.

Kleiner Katechismus. [Small Catechism.] Verfasst von Johann Nep. Neumann, Bischof von Philadelphia. Zehnte Auflage. Mit Genehmigung des National Conciliums von Baltimore. 32mo. Per hundred, $1 00

THE GREAT HISTORICAL CATHOLIC STORY!

By PAUL PEPPERGRASS, Esq., author of "Shandy Maguire."

THE CHEAPEST AND MOST INTERESTING WORK EVER OFFERED TO THE CATHOLICS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Just Published, in 2 vols. 12mo., 742 pages, with 6 Fine Illustrations; neatly bound in Cloth, Gilt Backs, $1 50. Or in 5 parts, done up in paper, $1 25.

THE SPAEWIFE, OR THE QUEEN'S SECRET:

A Tale of the Times of Queen Elizabeth.

By PAUL PEPPERGRASS, Esq., author of "Shandy Maguire."

The story is of the early part of Elizabeth's reign. The Queen herself is the principal actor; and we know of no writer who has so truly conceived and so faithfully illustrated her character, both as a sovereign and as a woman.

The interest of the story turns on her intrigues with Leicester on the one hand, and with the enemies of the Queen of Scots on the other.

The subordinate actors in the drama, particularly the Spawife herself, Nell Gower, Sir Geoffrey Wentworth, the old English gentleman, the reckless, daring young Irishman Rodger O'Brien, and the faithful, blundering servant Reddy Conner, are drawn with remarkable force and distinctness of character.

The publishers have the pleasure to announce that this work has already met with an extensive sale, and has been received with universal favor by the press and the public, throughout the country. In England it has been most favorably received—and is destined, according to the statements of the English press, to become a standard popular work.

The learned Dr. Brownson, in noticing this work, says: "The work itself is one of high pretensions as an historical novel, and has been elaborated with great care and pains, by an author who is already advantageously known to our public, and from whom we have much to expect. It has been favorably received, generally commended by the Catholic press, and men whose literary tastes and judgments we are bound to respect have pronounced it a masterpiece of its kind. It is written with ability, and is certainly a very interesting production."

The London Catholic Standard says: "The 'Spawife' is the production of the author of the work 'Shandy Maguire.' It is an historical novel of the time and reign of Queen Elizabeth, and portrays the character of that great enemy of Catholicity in the most masterly manner. The main interest of the narrative rests on the guilty fears of that sovereign, consequent on her more than suspicious intimacy with her prodigal favorite, Dudley, Earl of Leicester. There has been a painful uncertainty which has existed ever since those days as to the result of that connection between Elizabeth and Leicester. Ellis (in his 2 Ser., III, 136) alludes to the strong probability that the honor of the 'virgin' Queen was more than tainted. The manuscripts preserved at Simanacas follow in the same track of condemnatory evidence; and Lingard, in a most important note, establishes a pretty clear presumptive proof, that the periodical illnesses of the Queen were the result of her unhappy and disgraceful attachment to Leicester. The author of the 'Spawife' builds his story upon these presumed facts, without the slightest touch of pity for his hapless heroine. The narrative is vigorous, full of romantic incident, and the persecution of the helpless, unoffending Catholics, told with a pen of fire. It will be read with interest, and we have no doubt will soon become a popular and standard work."

The London Rambler, in noticing this work, says: "When we add that the book is from the same pen as 'Shandy Maguire,' they will know that there can be no lack of interest either in the subject or in the mode of handling it."

"In this work there are some scenes which we venture to say are unequalled since the days of Gerald Griffin, by any Catholic writer of fiction. We refer, as a proof of this, to that noble scene in the hiding place of the recusants—'Whinstone Hollow'—where Alice Wentworth meets with a disguised uncle, in one of the proscribed priests, so common then in England. For dramatic power, we have not seen its equal in many a day." Catholic Miscellany.

We select the following from the Shepherd of the Valley, as embodying the spirit of other notices:

"The book, as the author tells us in his preface, is 'neither religious nor controversial, but a plain story for plain people,—not in the least dangerous to faith or morals,' and intended as the principal ground of a vindication of MARY STUART in another story designed to form the sequel to this. It is much more than this however. It is a highly entertaining and well written tale, and, together with the promised sequel, will do much, we entertain no doubt, towards disabusing people of the false ideas of ELIZABETH and MARY, which they derive from those stereotyped fictions that are taken for history in our time. We heartily recommend the book to our readers as instructive and entertaining. Historical tales of this character do real good: and the talented author has put the Catholic public under fresh obligations to him by his just completed work."

In 1 vol. 12mo., cloth, $1 00; cloth, gilt edges, $1 50.

Pauline Seward, a Tale of Real Life.

"No prose writer of America has yet, to our knowledge, penned a more graceful or more unaffected Tale than this." London Sun.

Standard Catholic Books, published by Murphy & Co.

- A Series of Practical Meditations on the Obligations and Virtues of Christian and Religious Perfection; addressed to all classes of the Christian and Catholic community. Compiled by the translator of "Elevation of the Soul to God." 18mo. cloth 50. cloth, gilt edges 75
Butler's Lives of the Fathers, Martyrs and other Principal Saints, compiled from the Original Monuments and other authentic Records, illustrated with the remarks of Judicious Modern Critics and Historians. 2 vols. sup. royal 8vo. cloth 4 50 4 vols. cloth 5 00
2 vols. sheep 5 00 4 vols. sheep 6 00
2 vols. cloth, gilt edges 6 00 4 vols. cloth, gilt edges 7 50
2 vols. imit. gilt edges 7 50 4 vols. imit. gilt edges 10 00
To a work so well and so favorably known as the Lives of the Saints, it is deemed unnecessary to say anything by way of commendation. Suffice it to state, that the present edition has been gotten up with the greatest care, under the supervision of the eminent Professors of St. Mary's College, Baltimore. It is printed on fine paper, from a good clear and bold type, and may justly be considered the most complete as it is unquestionably the cheapest edition published.
A new edition, with fine illustrations preparing for publication.
Brief Explanation of the Ceremonies of the Mass. 6
Banquet of Theodulus, or Re-Union of the Different Christian Communions, by the late Baron de Starck, Protestant Minister, and first Preacher to the Court of Hesse Darmstadt. 12mo. paper 25
The same. flexible cloth 38 full bound cloth 50
Choice of a State of Life, by Father G. J. Rossignoli, S. J. Translated from the French. 18mo. cloth 50 cloth, gilt edges 75
Character of Rev. W. Palmer, M. A., as a Controversialist, &c. paper 13
Christianity and the Church, by the Rev. Charles Constantine Pise, D. D., author of "Father Rowland," "Aletheia," etc. cap. 8vo. cloth 75
Cobbett's History of the Reformation in England & Ireland, 12mo. pap. 25
The same. half bound 38 cloth 50
Christian Catechism of an Interior Life, by J. J. Olier. 32mo. cloth 25
The same. cloth, gilt edges 38 roan, stamped sides 50
Catholic Christian Instructed, in the Sacraments, Sacrifice, Ceremonies and Observances of the Church. paper 19
The same. flexible cloth 25 cloth extra 38
First Communion, a Series of Letters to the Young. 18mo. cloth 38
The same. cloth, gilt edges 50
Father Oswald, a Catholic story. 18mo. cloth, 50. cl. gt. edge 75
Fenelon on the Education of a Daughter. 18mo. cl. 50. cl. gt. edges 75
Garden of Roses and Valley of Lilies, by Thos. a Kempis. 32mo. cl. 25
The same. cloth, gilt edges 38 imit. turkey, gilt edges 75
" " roan, stamped sides 50 turkey morocco, super extra 1 00
Golden Book of Humility. 32mo. fancy paper 13
Life of Christ, by St. Bonaventure—to which are added the Devotion to the Three Hours' Agony of our Lord on the Cross, and the Life of the glorious St. Joseph. 18mo. cloth 50 cloth, gilt edges 75
Life of St. Patrick, Apostle of Ireland—to which are added the Lives of St. Bridget, Virgin and Abbess, and St. Columba, Abbot and Apostle of the Northern Picts. 12mo. cloth 50
Life of St. Vincent de Paul, Founder of the Congregation of the Missions and of the Sisters of Charity. flexible cloth 38
The same. cloth extra 50 cloth, gilt edges 75
Life of St. Stanislaus Kostka of the Society of Jesus, Patron of Novices. 18mo. cloth 38 cloth, gilt edges 63
Lingard's History and Antiquities of the Anglo-Saxon Church, with a Map of Anglo-Saxon Britain, &c. 8vo. cloth 1 50
Lorenzo, or the Empire of Religion. 32mo. cl. 25 cl. gilt edges 38
Milner's End of Religious Controversy, in a Friendly Correspondence between a Religious Society of Protestants and a Catholic Divine. By the Right Rev. John Milner. 12mo. paper 25
The same. half bound 38 cloth 50