FONDO BIBLIOTECA PUBLICA
DEL ESTADO DE NUEVO LEON

TO THE MOST HIGH AND MIGHTY PRINCE

JAMES,

BY THE GRACE OF GOD,

KING OF GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, AND IRELAND,

DEFENDER OF THE FAITH, &c.

The Translators of the Bible wish Grace, Mercy, and Peace, through JESUS CHRIST our Lord.

BEAT and sunlight were the blessings, most dear Sovereign, which Almighty God, the King of all creation, bestowed upon us the people of England, when first he sent his Majesty's Royal Patron to rule and reign over us. For whereas it was the expectation of many, who wished not well unto our Sire, that upon the setting of that celestial Star, Queen Elizabeth of most happy memory, some tempestuous clouds darkness would so have overspread our Land, that there should have been in doubt the way of our salvation; and that it should hardly be known, who was to direct the State; the appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his strength, immediately those supposed and surmised misfits, and even those that had well affected peace and tranquillity at home and abroad.

It among all our joys there was no one that more filled our hearts, than the blessed memory of the prophet of Gods sacred Word among us; which is that insuperable joy, which beareth all the riches of the earth; because the fruit thereof extendeth not only to the time spent in that transitory world, but directeth and disposeth men that eternall happiness which is above in Heaven.

To note to suffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue the state, wherein the famous Professor of Your Highness did leave it; we have done with the confidence and resolution of a Man in earnest for the truth of Christ, propagating it far and near, that is, where he bowed and firmly knit the hearts of Your Majestys loving and faithful people unto Yea, that Your very name is precious unto them; and their death behold You with comfort, and they bless You in their hearts, that sanctified Person, who, under God, is the immediate author of their salvation; and this their contentment doth not consiste in the quiet and dayly licensure and high strength wherewith they serve, but that of Your Majestys toward the house of God doth not rest on the backwaerd, but is more and more kindled, manifesting itself in the fartherng parts of Christendom, by writing in defence of the same, which hath given such a blow unto that man of sin, as will never be愈, and every day at one, by religious and learned discourse, by frequenting the houses of God, by hearing the word preached, by cherishing the Teachers thereof, by curing for the Church, as a most tender and loving nursing Father.

There are infinite arguments of this right christian and religous affection in Your Majesty, but none is more forcible to declare it to others than the vehement and praemeditated and exacting and publishing of this work, which now with all hastes is presented to Your Majesty. For when Your Highness had once of due judgement apprenged as convenient it was, that out of the Original Sacre Scripture, together with comparing the labours, both in old and new, and divers for Languages, of many worthy men who past me, it should be made a more exact Translation of the holy Scriptures into the English Tongue: Your Majesty did never deale to urge and to exhort those to whom it was commanded, that the work might be hastened, and that the business might be expedited in a decent manner, as a matter of such importance might justly require.

And now as last, by the mercy of God, and the continuall of our labours, it being brought unto such a conclusion, as we have great hope will the Church of England hall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our duty to offer it to Your Majesty, not only as to our King and Sovereign, but as to the principal Mover and Author of the work: humbly craving of Your most Sacred Majesty, that since things of this quality have ever been subject to the censures of illmeaning and disinterested persons, it may receive approbation and panegyric from so learned and judicious a Prince as Your Highness is, whose allowance and approbation are of far more value than the honour and encouragement given them all the calumnies and hard interpretation of other men shall deserve. So that if, on one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us, because we are poor instruments to make God's holy Truth to be yet more and more known; and if, on the other side, they do worse still to keep us ignorant and darkness; or if, on the other side, we shall be maligned by unfeigned Brethren, who will say, we have ways, and give likeing unto nothing, but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their anvil; we may rest secure, supported within by the truth and innocency of a good conscience, and without by the protection of Your Majestys grace and favour, which sustained us without the powerful assistance of any other.

The Lord of heaven and earth bless Your Majesty with many and happy days, that, as his heavenly hand hath enriched Your Highness with many singular and extraordinary graces, so You may be the wonder of the world in this latter age for happiness and true felicity, to the honour of that great GOD, and the god of his Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

CALLED

GENESIS.

Before CHRIST
1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
2 And the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the water; and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.
3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and he divided the light from the darkness.
5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.
6 And it was even, and the evening and the morning were the first day.
7 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the water.
8 And God made the firmament, and divided the water which was under the firmament from the water which was above the firmament: and it was so.
9 And God said, Let the water under the firmament be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear.
10 And it was so.
11 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the water he called Sea: and God saw that it was so.
12 Then God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding of every kind after his own kind, and let it grow upon the earth: and it was so.

13 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the fruit tree yielding fruit, whereof every tree whose seed was in the earth brought forth: after his kind: and God saw that it was so.
14 And the earth brought forth the creeping thing upon the earth, and every tree, in whose which is the fruit bearing seed: and it was so.
15 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day and the night; and let the lights rule the night: as he made the stars also.
16 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

17 And God said, Let me make man in my image, and after my likeness: and let him have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.
18 And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them.
19 And God said, Behold, I have given you every tree bearing fruit, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in whose which is the fruit bearing seed: let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years.
20 And God saw every thing that he had made, and it was very good.
21 And God saw every thing that he had made, and it was very good.
22 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

23 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let him have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

24 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them.

25 And God blessed them, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

26 And God saw every thing that he had made, and it was very good.

27 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

28 And God said, Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth.

29 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth upon the earth after his kind, and every winged bird after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

30 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the green herb for man to eat.

31 And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

32 And God said, This is the day when I have made you to live.

33 And God blessed the day, and called it the Sabbath day.

34 And God saw every thing that he had made, and it was very good.

35 And God blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

36 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness:

37 And let him have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living creature.

38 And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them.

39 And God blessed them, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over every living creature that moveth upon the earth.
