

THE EPISTLE DEDICATORY.

craving of Your most Sacred Majesty, that since things of this quality have ever been subject to the censures of illmeaning and disinterested persons, it may receive approbation and panegyric from so learned and judicious a Prince as Your Highness is, whose allowance and approbation are of far more value than the honour and encouragement given them all the calumnies and hard interpretation of other men shall deserve. So that if, on one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us, because we are poor instruments to make God's holy Truth to be yet more and more known; and if, on the other side, they do worse still to keep us ignorant and darkness; or if, on the other side, we shall be maligned by unfeigned Brethren, who will say, we have ways, and give likeing unto nothing, but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their anvil; we may rest secure, supported within by the truth and innocency of a good conscience, and without by the protection of Your Majestys grace and favour, which sustained us without the powerful assistance of any other.

The Lord of heaven and earth bless Your Majesty with many and happy days, that, as his heavenly hand hath enriched Your Highness with many singular and extraordinary graces, so You may be the wonder of the world in this latter age for happiness and true felicity, to the honour of that great GOD, and the god of his Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

CALLED

GENESIS.

Before CHRIST
1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
2 And the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the water; and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.
3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and he divided the light from the darkness.
5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.
6 And it was even, and the evening and the morning were the first day.
7 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the water.
8 And God made the firmament, and divided the water which was under the firmament from the water which was above the firmament: and it was so.
9 And God said, Let the water under the firmament be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear.
10 And it was so.
11 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the water he called Sea: and God saw that it was so.
12 Then God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding of every kind after his own kind, and let it grow upon the earth: and it was so.

13 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the fruit tree yielding fruit, whereof every tree whose seed was in the earth brought forth: after his kind: and God saw that it was so.
14 And the earth brought forth the creeping thing upon the earth, and every tree, in whose which is the fruit bearing seed: and it was so.
15 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day and the night; and let the lights rule the day: and let there be signs to distinguish the day and the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years.
16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made also the stars.
17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and the darkness was divided from the light: and God saw that it was so.

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the darkness from the darkness: and God saw that it was so.
19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.
20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth living creatures after their kind, and every living creature which the day before the night brought forth for the rule of the day.

21 And it was so.

22 And God said, Let the green herbs grow upon the earth, and every thing that creates abundantly the 3 morning creature that has 2 life, and 4 feet that may fly upon the face of the earth.

23 And God said, Let the green herbs grow upon the face of the earth.
24 And God created man in his own image, in the likeness of God made he him; after his own image, God made him.
25 And God blessed them, and said, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over fowl multiply in the earth, and let every beast multiply in its kind: and God was well pleased.

26 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

27 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and every thing that creeps upon the earth: it was so.
28 And God made the beast of the earth, and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth, out of the dust of the ground: but of the dust of the ground he made man in his own image: as in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them.
29 And God said, Let the earth bring forth fruit yielding seed, after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whereof every tree whose seed was in the earth bring forth: after his kind: and God saw that it was so.

30 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the creeping thing upon the earth, and every tree, in whose which is the fruit bearing seed: and it was so.
31 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and the darkness was divided from the light: and God saw that it was so.
32 And to every kind of the earth, to every plant which brings forth seed, and to every tree whose seed was in the earth, to give light upon the earth: and God saw that it was so.
33 And God said, Let the waters bring forth living creatures after their kind, and every thing that creeps upon the earth, wherein there is life, to have every tree which bears fruit to give seed: and it was so.

34 And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold it was very good.

35 And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

36 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.

The wells which Isaac digged.

GENESIS, XXVII. Isaac sendeth Esau for venison.

R.C. 11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that falleth this man down, let him not live; but he that smiteth him, let him be put to death: and he that receiveth him in safety, let him not be vexed. 12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and it brought forth a hundredfold: for the Lord blessed him, because he had done right in the sight of the Lord; and it was good in the sight of men. 13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew unto fatness. 14 For he had possessed of flocks, and herds, and of servants, and had many goods; so that he became great. 15 And Esau was forty years old, when he took to his wife Judith, the daughter of Beeri the Hittite: 16 And she bare him Ishmael, and Esau. 17 And Esau said unto Isaac, Give me, for I am瘦弱, that might mightier. 18 ¶ And Isaac despatched them, and sent them away from the house of the deity, and sent them away from the valley of the Gerar. 19 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which were named of the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the days of Abraham; and he called the names after the days by which his father had called them. 20 And Isaac sowed again in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. 21 ¶ And the heathens of Gerar digged again the wells which were named of the well of Ezech; because they strewed with him. 22 And he dug another well, and strewed for that also; and he called the name of it Rechabim. 23 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and said that they should call the name of it Beer-sheba; and he said, For now the Lord hath made room for us, and we shall dwell in the land. 24 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba. 25 ¶ When the Lord appeared unto him at Beer-sheba, and spake unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: stay not here, but go up into the land whereof I speak unto thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham. 26 And Jacob said unto Rebekah his mother, Rebekah, "Hear my brother is at Beer-sheba, and I have seen him, and I will go to him." 27 And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the Lord, and spake unto the Lord, saying, If thou wilt give me this land, and if thy servants dig a well. 28 ¶ Then Abraham went to him from Gerar, and brought thence one of his friends, and Phichel the chief captain of his host. 29 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore comest thou to me, seeing I have not yet a son? 30 And they said, We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee; and we will therefore bring our maid-servants, now even between us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee. 31 And Isaac said, Come not near to me, as we have not touched each other, and we have done unto these maid-servants but good. 32 And they said, We will bring them to thee, and if the Lord doth determine for us, then let them come. 33 And they rose up before him in the morning, and I gave one to another. R.C. 194, 204, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248,
