10. 1430. 8. And if she sowed in a husband's field, or bound her soul by a bond with a maid. 11. And her husband heard it, or sold his piece at her, and displayed her name at his ear, yet, shall stand, and every word wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

10. 1431. 8. But if her husband himself hold his piece at her from day to day, then shall stand all her work, or of her bonds, which are upon her, be it with her, because he laid his piece at her in the day that he heard it. 10. 1432. 8. But if she shall any way make them void after that he hath bound them, then he shall bear her liability.

20. These are the statutes, which the Lord commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between a man and his daughter, between a man and his father's house, when he is in his father's house.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1. AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2. I Avowge the children of Israel of the Midianites, saying, that they have gathered unto thy people.

3. And Moses said unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves into the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the Lord of Midian. 4. Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5. So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, seven thousand and seven hundred. 6. And Moses sent them in the war, a thousand of every tribe, and Eliazab the daughter of Phineas the priest, in the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hands.

7. And they warned against the Midianites, in the Lotus commanded Moses, and they slew all the males. 10. 1433. 21. 1. And they were all slain with the sword. 2. And he smote the princes of the Midianites, Balaam the son of Beor, and Hori, and Icheb, five kings of Midian. 3. And Balaam the son of Beor they slew with the sword. 4. And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captive, and their little sons, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

2. Heb. a thousand of a tribe, a thousand of a tribe.

NUMBERS, XXXII.

10. 1434. 8. And they heard all their cities whither in they dwelt, and all their goodly cities, with the sea.

11. And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of oxen. 12. And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoils, unto Balaam the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho. 13. And Aaron the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14. And Moses was with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the Shittim. 15. And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive?

16. And Balaam answered the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, saying, I have sworn against the Lord, in the matter of Lot, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lotus. 17. Now therefore shall every male among the little ones, and all every woman that hath known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

18. And ye shall slay without the camp all seven days: whoever hath killed an ox, and whoever hath touched any thing, purify him, and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day. 19. And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of the man's hand, and all things made of wool. 20. And ye shall wash the skins of the men of war which went to the battle, the end of the robe of the lot which the Lord commanded Moses.

21. Only the gold, and the silver, and the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead. 22. Every thing that may make the fire, ye shall not burn: for through the fire, ye shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified in the water of separation. 23. And all that which is not of the fire shall ye wash on the seventh day.

24. And all ye shall stand on the day the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp. 25. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

26. And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall be clean on the day the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

27. And ye shall bring the spoils of the war, which were sent to Lot, and all the spoils of the women, and of the sheep. 28. To take of thy half, and give of unto Balaam the son of Beor, who hath offered the Lotus. 29. The Fifth Book of MOSES, called DEUTERONOMY.

R 6 C 1451

1 THESE be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel on the north side of Jordan, between Eilat, and Thophel, and Libnah, and Beeroth, and Debaiha.
 2 Now it was the third day of the month, that Moses came down from Sinai, with the two tables of the covenant from the Lord : now these were the things which he said unto the people,
 3 Ye have seen how I have been alone with the Lord, and he hath said unto me, Take thee these words, and speak them unto Israel : ye are a stiff-necked people, and ye shall not believe me, unless I shall do signs and wonders before you, which ye shall not see, and which ye shall not believe : but ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have done these signs and wonders before you.
 4 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.
 5 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.
 6 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.

R 6 C 1451

7 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.
 8 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.
 9 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.

10 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.

11 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.

12 And ye shall say, The Lord is God, who hath brought me out of the land of Egypt.
