The Midianites put to flight.

R.C. 15 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that had a dream in his hand, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a seat, and fell upon it, and overturned it, that the tray lay upon it.

16 And he followed over and said, What is this that thou hast done? Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel, is for us to hand thee, that thou shalt tell the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he will worship, and returned into the land of Israel, and said unto the Lord, Behold, I have delivered into thy hand the host of Midian.

17 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put 70 trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and 4 lamps within the pitchers.

19 And when I blow with my trumpet, I will be first as I do, so shall ye do.

R.C. 2 Therefore David (captain of the ark) 10:20. Loam, saying, Shall I not enter thee 11:1. Philistines. And the Loam said unto 11:2. A. David, Go and smite the Philistines, and I will give thee to me. 11:3. And David's men said unto him, Be hold, we be afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we come to Gath against the armies of the Philistines? 11:4. Thus David equipped of the Levites to war. And the Loam answered him not, saying, Arise, go down to Gath; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

11:5 So David and his men went to Gath, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David smote the inhabitants of Gath. 11:6 And it came to pass, when a blasphemy was done against the Lord to David in Gath, that he came down with an army in his hand.

11:7 And it was told Saul that David was gone to Gath. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand; for he hath to go, entering into the towns that have gates and bars. 11:8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Gath, in his company David and his men.

11:9 And David knew that Saul secretly pursued himself against him, and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod. 11:10 Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard, that thou hast said to me to Gath, to destroy the city for my sake.

11:11 Will the man of Gath deliver me into his hand? will thou overthrow me by thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I knoweth thee, and thy servant. And the Loam said, He will come down.

11:12 Thus said David, Will the man of Gath deliver me as my men have said? And the Loam said, I will deliver thee. 11:13 Then said David and his men, yield ye unto us hundred, gross and separated out of Gath, and weest whether, severer they shall go. And he told Saul that David was escaped from Gath, and he returned to go forth.

11:14 And David abode in a wood. 11:15 In a strong hold, and remained in it 11:16. And the wilderness of Ziph bore witness against him every day; for he had delivered him out into his hand. 11:17 And David said unto Saul, My servant is to seek his life; and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

11:18 And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and came to David into the wood, and strengthened his hands in God. 11:19 And he said unto him, I am not for thee; and thou shalt be safe; for I will not find the hand of Saul my father; for I fear the Lord. And I shall be next unto thee; and I will save thee from his hand.

11:20 And the two brethren were content to do so. 11:21 And the Loam and David abode in the wood; and Jonathan was in his house. 11:22 And it came up the Ziphites to Saul in Gath, saying, David and Jonathan be hid abroad with us in strong holds in the wood; in the wilderness of Ziph, in the south of Judah, which thou dost know.

11:23 And Saul said, I will go down to the wilderness of Ziph, to seek David, and Jonathan his son. 11:24 And he said unto his servants, Go ye, and search the mountains, and the hills about thence, and when ye have found him, then bring him to me. 11:25 And he said unto his servants, Go ye, and search the mountains, and the hills about thence, and when ye have found him, then bring him to me.

11:26 And he said unto his servants, Go ye, and search the mountains, and the hills about thence, and when ye have found him, then bring him to me. 11:27 And he said unto his servants, Go ye, and search the mountains, and the hills about thence, and when ye have found him, then bring him to me.

11:28 And he said unto his servants, Go ye, and search the mountains, and the hills about thence, and when ye have found him, then bring him to me. 11:29 And he said unto his servants, Go ye, and search the mountains, and the hills about thence, and when ye have found him, then bring him to me.
