Eliphaz went to meet Abah.

16 And the hail of most violent wind, and lightning did smite the crass of the hill, according to the word of the Lord, which he said by Eliphaz.

17 And it came to pass after those visions of the men of the women, that the seer was no longer left in him.

18 And he said unto Eliphaz, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God: art thou come unto me to tell my sins to remembrance, and say to my sorrow?

19 And he said unto him, Give me thy counsel: and he took him out of his house, and carried him into a lofty, where he staid, and laid him upon his bed.

20 And he cried upon the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with no helpers, by slaying her father?

21 And he smothered himself upon a pillar, till three times, and cried unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with no helpers, by slaying her father?

22 And the Lord heard the voice of Eliphaz, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Eliphaz took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and said unto his mother, and Eliphaz said, See, thy son liveth.

24 And the women said to Eliphaz, How is it now? and he said, My son is now dead, and that the word of the Lord is thus.

25 And he returned said to Eliphaz, How is it now? and he said, My son is now dead, and that the word of the Lord is thus.

26 And he returned said to Eliphaz, How is it now? and he said, My son is now dead, and that the word of the Lord is thus.

27 And he returned said to Eliphaz, How is it now? and he said, My son is now dead, and that the word of the Lord is thus.

28 And he returned said to Eliphaz, How is it now? and he said, My son is now dead, and that the word of the Lord is thus.
