

16.C. 1014. Ina, because the Israelites which Solomon had made was not able to receive the better offering, and the meat offering, and the fat.

17. ¶ And also at the same time Solomon kept the four corners of it, and filled with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamathi unto the river of Egypt.

18. ¶ And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly, that they lay the dedication of the altar seven days, and the four corners thereof.

19. ¶ And on the third and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the Lord had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

20. ¶ Then Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the Lord, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

21. ¶ And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

22. ¶ If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the insects to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people,

23. ¶ And if my people, which are called by my name, shall forsake themselves, and say, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

24. ¶ Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears shall unto the prayer that is made in this house.

25. ¶ For now have I chosen, and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever; and mine eyes and mine ears shall be there perpetually.

26. ¶ If thou art for these things, if thou wilt walk before me, as I have said, and shalt according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments,

27. ¶ Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

28. ¶ And thou shalt say, My arm is strengthened, because I have sworn unto thee, saying, I will be to thee a father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

29. ¶ And thou shalt say, My arm is strengthened, because I have sworn unto thee, saying, I will be to thee a father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

30. ¶ And thou shalt say, My arm is strengthened, because I have sworn unto thee, saying, I will be to thee a father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

31. ¶ And thou shalt say, My arm is strengthened, because I have sworn unto thee, saying, I will be to thee a father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

Jehoshaphat's death.

II. CHRONICLES. XXI.

Jehoram's wicked reign.

8:292. How and when they had made me all of the inhabitants of Seir, every one put a dagger under his thigh.

29 And when Jehoram came to the watch tower in the wilderness, they laid out into the multitude, and he, and they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

30 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of Idume, they found among them in abundance both Syrians with the dead Syrians, and Idumean Jews, which they straggled off in their flight, more than they could carry away; and they were three days in the gathering of the spoil, it was much.

31 And on the fourth day Jehoram sent himself in the valley of Heshbon, for there they lay dead, and they therefore the name of the place was called. The valley of Heshbon, on this day.

32 Then they returned, every man of Judah, and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the multitude of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the Lord had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

33 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the Lord.

34 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of these countries, when they had heard that the Lord fought against the enemies of Israel.

35 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest round about.

36 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah, in one thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Shimei.

37 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

38 Howbeit the high places were not taken away; for as yet the people had not the prepared hearts unto the God of their fathers.

39 Now was the rest of Jehoshaphat, and his first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

40 And after that said Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, which did very wickedly.

41 And he raised himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in泊osepher.

42 Then Eliseus the prophet of Shalem, who was of the children of the prophets, opposed Ahaziah, saying: Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the Lord hath departed his wrath from thee, and thou shalt not see the year.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things; and he gave them in Judah; but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; and he reigned in Jerusalem.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingship of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the sons of his mother.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as Ahab the king of Israel, like as all the houses of Israel; and he brought forth Ahaziah his son to be king of Judah.

7 Howbeit the Lord would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and so he promised to give a light to him, and to him forever.

8 In his day the Edomites revolted from under the domination of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his wives, and all his chariots, with him; and he rose up at night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in, and he captured the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under his hand; because he had forgotten the Lord God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and raised the high places of Jerusalem, to procure for himself sin, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came a writing from the king of Israel, and a word from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, because thou hast not walked in the way of the Lord thy God, Jehoram, nor in the way of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Ahaziah thy son, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be a whorish city, and hast slain a king: the brethren of the father thou hast not saved better than thou!

14 Therefore the Lord shall give unto thee the Lord's sake, and the children, and the wives, and all thy goods.

15 And thou shalt stand as a witness by the side of the bowmen, until they have slain thee by reason of the sin thou hast committed by day.

16 Moreover the Lord stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Ethiopians, which came against him: and he carried away into Judah, and into Idume, and he slew him, and his substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives also; so that there was none son left him, save only Jehoash the son of his concubine.

17 And after all this the Lord raised up Jehoiada the high priest, and he took Jehoram away, after the death of two years, his bowels full; out by reason of his wickedness; so he died, and was buried in Idume.

Athaliah's usurpation.

II. CHRONICLES. XXII. XXIII.

Athaliah is slain.

3:6. How she made no mourning for him, like the wives of his fathers.

7 And thirty and two years old was he, when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired: because they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

8 And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Israel went to the house of Baal, and consulted with the Arabians in the camp.

9 And he called the name of his son Ahaziah after the name of his father, who reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah, the daughter of Uri.

10 She also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor.

11 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the Lord like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father for his destruction.

12 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to see against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Jehoram.

13 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramoth, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria: And Joram was the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

14 And the destruction of Athaliah the wife of Ahab God by coming to Jezreel: for she was the mother of the king of Israel, who was the son of Jehoram.

15 And it came to pass, that when Jehoram was executing judgment upon the high places, he smote the priests of the house of Ahab, and the sons of the bastards of Ahab, that remained to Athaliah, and she slew them.

16 And he sought Ahaziah's sons, and caught him, for he was hid in a bottle, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him.

17 And he smote the king's men, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him.

18 And he smote the king's men, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him.

19 And he smote the king's men, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him.

20 And he smote the king's men, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him.

21 And he smote the king's men, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him.

22 And he smote the king's men, and he smote him: and he smote the king's men, and he smote him.

16 And she was slain in Judah, and gathered the Lovers out of all the cities of Judah, and she came to Jerusalem.

17 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king to slay Athaliah: and he sent unto them, Behold, the king's son shall remain: and he hath said of the sons of David.

18 This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you entering on the Sabbath, of priests shall stand before the parts of the doors.

19 And a third part shall be of the king's house, and a third part at the gate of the fortification: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the Lord.

20 In that case come into the house of the Lord, have the priests, and every that minister of the Levites: they shall be at the door, for they say to you, Behold, the people shall keep the watch of the house.

21 And the Levites shall surround the king's court, every man with his weapons in his hand, and whatsoever he cometh in, and when he hath said, death: but he will be with the king when he cometh in, and when he hath said,

22 So be ye slain, and all Azubah: do according to all things that Azubah the priest hath commanded, and took every man his man that were to come in to the suburbs, with them that were to go out on the Sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest smote down all the courts.

23 Moreover Jehoiada the high priest, and all the captains of hundreds, officers, and backsliders, that had been with King David, which were in the house of God.

24 And he set all the people, every man having his bow in his hand, from the gate to the tower, before the altar and the gates of the temple, while the star and the sun were shining brightly.

25 Then they brought unto the king's sons, and put them upon horses: and King Jehoiada and his sons went in.

26 And he said unto the king, Stand up, for the Lord is with thee.

27 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people, running and praising the king, she came to the tower into the house of Baal.

28 And she looked, and, behold, the king and the captains of the army, and all the people, running and praising the king: and all the women of the king, and the officers and trumpets, also revival, and sounded with tabors, also the strings with instruments of musick.

29 And she said, Where is the king? Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Whence is this noise?

30 Then Jehoiada the priest brought her near to a bastion, and she said unto them, Have I heard you to say that ye shall do this? For the priests shall stand before the parts of the doors.

31 And she was with them hid in the house of the Lord: and she hid her face; for she was afraid of the king's men, and where she was come to the entrance of the house: and she was slain.

32 And Jehoiada made a covenant with the king, and with the captains of hundreds, and with all the people, that they should be for the king's sons, and that they should be for the king's sons, and that they should be for the king's sons.

18. Ch. 30. v. 1. How we have turned because we offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the Lord.

2. v. 2. Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them into bondage, to wit, to the king of Assyria.

3. v. 3. For, ye, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and we were scattered over all the mountains, and our wives are in captivity for us.

4. v. 4. Now we is in like heart to make in covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

5. v. 5. My son, thou art too negligent, for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, and to be his ministers, and ye should minister unto him, and shall rejoice.

6. v. 6. Then the Levites arose, Jehoshaphat the son of Azariah, and Jehiel the son of Azai, and Jehoram the son of Zebadiah, and the Levites, Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Kishai the son of Jehoiada.

7. v. 7. And of the sons of Elizephai, Shammur, and Jehiel, and of the sons of Asaph, Zachariah, and Mattaniah.

8. v. 8. And of the sons of Heman, Jehiel, and Shimei, and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemiamun, and Jafat.

9. v. 9. And they gathered their brethren, and a certified themselves, and, coming, according to the commandment of the king, they wrought the work of the Lord, to cleanse the house of the Lord.

10. v. 10. And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the Lord, to cleanse it, and brought all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the Lord into the court of the house of the Lord.

11. v. 11. And the Levites that were in the court of the house of the Lord, sang out loud to the Lord, because they had cleansed it.

12. v. 12. And on the first day of the first month to sacrifice, and on the eighth day of the month came there to the porch of the house, so they sanctified the house of the Lord in eight days, and in the sixteenth day of the first month they sanctified the altar.

13. v. 13. Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the Lord, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

14. v. 14. Moreover all the vessels, which king Manasse had made in the house of the Lord, to provoke to anger, we have broken in pieces, and we have cast them into the sea.

15. v. 15. And we have cleansed the king's house, and we have brought out thence all the filth of the house of the Lord.

16. v. 16. And we have sanctified the priests, and we have brought them into the house of the Lord.

17. v. 17. And we have sanctified the priests, and we have brought them into the house of the Lord.

II. CHRONICLES, XXXII. Sennacherib besieged Jeru-

16 C. 278. 2. set, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbath, and for the new moons, and for the solemn feasts, in accordance with the law of the Lord.

17 Moreover he commanded the people that they should sing praises to the Lord of the psalms and the Litanies, that they might be remembered in the law of the Lord.

18 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance a sacrifice of praise, of song, and of an organ, and of all the instruments of the house of God, and all things which they brought in their hearts to sing to the Lord their God, and had them up by voice.

19 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwell in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the title of their song, and the title of all things which they were concerning unto the Lord their God, and had them up by voice.

20 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the house, and finished them in the seventh month.

21 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the house, they blessed the Lord and his people Israel.

22 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the house.

23 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of David answered him, and said,

24 Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the Lord, we have had enough to eat, and have left many for the Levites to sing and his people; and that which is left is this great store.

25 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to remove burnt offerings in the house of the Lord, and they prepared them.

26 And he brought in the silver and the brass and the dedicated things faithfully, four hundred talents, and the Levites, and the priests, and Shiloh his brother was the man.

27 And Jehoiada, and Azariah, and Nehemiah, and Azab, and Jehoiada, and Jehoshaphat, and Jehonathan, and Jehoram, were overseers before the king of Judah, and set out his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of the Lord.

28 And here the sun of Hezekiah the king, the porter toward the east, may observe the flowings of gold, to increase the offerings of the Levites, and the most holy things.

29 And ¶ next him were Edem, and Mishnaim, and Azubah, and Shebuel, and Jehoiada, were overseers, in the cities of the priests, in their offices, to give to their brethren by the law, as well to the priests as to the Levites.

30 Because their portion of vessels, from three years, and set upward, was unto every one that entered into the house of the Lord, his due portion for their charge was in their charge according to their houses.

31 ¶ Both to the twentieth of the priests by the house of their fathers, and to the Levites, from twenty years old upward, in their charge by their course.

32 And to the portion of all those that do, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the country.
