A. D. 33. Now, Ye Sons of Israel, and all ye that fear God, hearken to these words: For these are no vain words, as ye suppose, saying it is but this hour that this day is done.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet David:

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh: and your sons shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

18 And upon my servants and upon my handmaid I will pour out in those days of my spirit, and they shall prophesy.

19 And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 The sun shall be turned into black, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you, being raised up by us, and seeing us, he was slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

23 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us.

24 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

25 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

26 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

27 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

28 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

29 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

30 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

31 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

32 Whom God hath raised up, having seen before us, he being slain by the hands of wicked men, and hung on a tree.

Agrippa desired

THE ACTS, XXV, XXVI

to hear Paul

A. D. 60. 33 And he commanded a liberty to keep Paul, and to let him have a clerk, 34 that he should teach some of his acquaintance to minister as clerk unto him.

A. D. 60. 35 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith of Christ.

A. D. 60. 36 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix was troubled, and answered, for he was for this time when I have a convenient season, I will call thee.

A. D. 60. 37 He hoped also that because he had seen him given him, that he might have him; wherefore he sent for him the officer, and commanded him.

A. D. 60. 38 But after two years Pudentia came into Pontus, and Felix, with his daughter, sent the Jews a pleasure, lest Paul should mission, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews inferred and, desiring to have judgment against him,

A. D. 60. 39 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of us Jews to sue for judgment, as to those who are strangers; but we have license to accuse for himself concernment: either he will acquit himself,

A. D. 60. 40 I therefore said unto them, I am an Hebrew, without any other religion to me: now let me see the indictment against me, before that he will sue for judgment.

A. D. 60. 41 A captain whither when the officers stood up, they brought some accusation of saying he blasphemed the gods of the Greeks.

A. D. 60. 42 But he had certain questions asked him, 43 in his own reputation, and of the Jews, which was made, when Paul affirmed to be alive.

A. D. 60. 44 Because I doubted of some manner of question, I asked him whether he would go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of his matters.

A. D. 60. 45 But when Paul had opposed to the chief men to the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.

A. D. 60. 46 Thus I Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man; 47 he answered, say he, thou shalt hear him.

A. D. 60. 48 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Herod, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, the prince-commandant Paul was brought forth.

A. D. 60. 49 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with me, see this man, whose name will ye call? 50 And he answered, that he is an Hebrew, and was educated in the law of Moses, with great industry, and principal man of the city, of the prince-commandant Paul was brought forth.

A. D. 60. 51 But I have found that he had committed nothing worthy of death.

A. D. 60. 52 But that he had blasphemed Augustus, I have determined to send him.

A. D. 60. 53 Or when I have an occasion thing to write you to him, wherefore I have sought him forth before ye, he shall be ready; for I have nothing to say against him.

A. D. 60. 54 For concerning these things which I have somewhat to write.

A. D. 60. 55 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

CHAPTER XXV

A. D. 61. 1 Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.

A. D. 61. 2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews, informed him against Paul, and besought him.

A. D. 61. 3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, saying we will in the way to kill him.

A. D. 61. 4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept in Caesarea; and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

A. D. 61. 5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man; if there be any workman in him.

A. D. 61. 6 And when he had tarried many days more than two days, he went down to Caesarea; and set forth the scribes on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

A. D. 61. 7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Masada, besought him round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which he could not remove.

A. D. 61. 8 Where he answered the Hebrews, Not that against the law of the Jews, neither against the law of the Romans, yet against the law have I offended any thing at all.

A. D. 61. 9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews' pleasure, said unto Paul, wilt thou go down to Jerusalem, and stand there before me to be judged of these things?

A. D. 61. 10 Then said Paul, I stand not to be judged: for I have no cause; for I have done nothing against the law of the Jews, neither against the law of the Romans, but I have somewhat to write.

A. D. 61. 11 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

CHAPTER XXVI

A. D. 61. 12 WHEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul answered with a loud voice, and said, I have somewhat to write.

A. D. 61. 13 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 14 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 15 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 16 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 17 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 18 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 19 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 20 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 21 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 22 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 23 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 24 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

Paul's defence

THE ACTS, XXVII

before Agrippa

A. D. 62. the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

A. D. 62. 1 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience. For which hope I have had hope, I am accused of the same.

A. D. 62. 2 If I should be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead.

A. D. 62. 3 I testify therefore with myself, that I am true unto conscience towards God, and towards the same of Jews of Nazareth.

A. D. 62. 4 In which things I also did in Jerusalem; and many of the saints did I kill, and many of the good men, that I have set at naught; having received authority from the chief priests; when they were put to death, I gave my assent.

A. D. 62. 5 And I punished them all in every sentence, and compelled them to sing psalms, and being accordingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

A. D. 62. 6 In which case I was sent to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests.

A. D. 62. 7 At midday, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shading round about me, and when I had fallen, with me.

A. D. 62. 8 And when I was all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying to the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me: it is hard for thee to kick against the goad.

A. D. 62. 9 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? and he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

A. D. 62. 10 If that, and stand upon thy feet; for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness unto all these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will require thee also.

A. D. 62. 11 Believing then from the people, and from the Gentiles, came unto me: 12 and I have testified both unto them, and unto you.

A. D. 62. 13 For when they saw, and returned from their darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they might receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith here: it is a cause.

A. D. 62. 14 Whereupon O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.

A. D. 62. 15 But I showed first unto them of Damascus, and of Jerusalem, and throughout all the cities of Judaea, and then of the Jews, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

A. D. 62. 16 For these causes ye Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

A. D. 62. 17 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing unto all men, that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

A. D. 62. 18 For these things which ye Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

A. D. 62. 19 And I stand unto this day, witnessing unto all men, that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

A. D. 62. 20 For these things which ye Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

A. D. 62. 21 And I stand unto this day, witnessing unto all men, that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

A. D. 62. 22 For these things which ye Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

A. D. 62. 23 And I stand unto this day, witnessing unto all men, that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

A. D. 62. 24 For these things which ye Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

A. D. 62. 25 And I stand unto this day, witnessing unto all men, that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

A. D. 62. 26 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 27 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 28 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 29 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 30 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 31 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 32 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 33 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 34 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 35 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 36 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 37 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 38 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 39 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 40 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 41 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

A. D. 62. 42 For I wish your grace: and our twelve tribes, being likewise serving God's end, and in right conscience.

CHAPTER XXVII

A. D. 62. 1 AND when it was determined that Paul should sail into Italy, they fasted. 2 And certain others advised him to sail into Phoenicia, 3 saying we will go with thee, as we have done before, and will come with thee to Italy.

A. D. 62. 4 But Paul desired to sail into Italy.

A. D. 62. 5 Wherefore the chief captain, after he had consulted with the soldiers, answered Paul, and said, I will do as thou desirest; but we will accompany thee.

A. D. 62. 6 And when he had appointed two hundred soldiers to accompany Paul, he departed, and sailed into Phoenicia.

A. D. 62. 7 And when he was come to Sidon, Paul and they went to land.

A. D. 62. 8 And the next day they departed thence, and sailed into Sicily, and came to Messina.

A. D. 62. 9 And from thence they sailed, and came to Rhegium.

A. D. 62. 10 And when they were departed thence, they sailed, and came to Peloponnesus.

A. D. 62. 11 And when they were come to the straits, Paul bade the soldiers, saying, Stand here, for I will take of you a hundred men.

A. D. 62. 12 And when he had said these words, he fell down, and worshipped the gods.

A. D. 62. 13 And when the soldiers were about to go down to the ship, Paul said unto them, I beseech you, that ye would stand here: for I will take of you a hundred men.

A. D. 62. 14 And when he had said these words, he fell down, and worshipped the gods.

A. D. 61. 19 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 20 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 21 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 22 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 23 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 24 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 25 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 26 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 27 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 29 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. D. 61. 30 For it was not unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him to signify the crimes that he had done.

A. 26. 6. 14 But not long after three o'clock
 15 a tempestuous wind, called Euro-cyclone:
 16 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we were driven.
 17 And running aground a certain island which is called Melite, we had much work to come to the boat.
 18 Which when they had taken up,
 they used help, underlaying the shipboard, fearing that they should fall into the quicksands, strike all, and so were driven.
 19 And we feared exceedingly to avoid a serpent, the next day they lighted the ship.

20 And the third day we went out with our own hands, the heaving of the wind being so strong.
 21 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.
 22 But after long absence, I found land in the midst of them, and said, Sicily should have been called unto us, but how have I found Crete, and so have hoped this leaves and so.
 23 And now I exhort you, lest of a good cheer, for these shall be no less of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

24 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve.
 25 And saying, Vespere, Paul! thou must stand upon thy feet: for God will save thee: for thou shalt be brought before the emperor.
 26 Therefore stand upon thy feet: for God will save thee: for thou shalt be brought before the emperor.
 27 Therefore stand upon thy feet: for God will save thee: for thou shalt be brought before the emperor.

28 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they were near to land where they would have coasted.
 29 And as they sought for a place where they might land, they saw a certain bay, and they were driven thither.

30 And as the shipmen were about to cast the board into the sea, understood that they would have coasted there.
 31 Paul went to the captain and said to the soldiers, Except these shall be cast into the sea, the ship will be wrecked:
 but if ye will let them abide, I will save all your souls, and the ship.

32 And when he had said these things,
 he cast a bucket of water into the sea,
 and said, Behold, I tell you, I have found the island, which is called Mel-
 ite.
 33 And when he had said these things,
 he cast a bucket of water into the sea,
 and said, Behold, I tell you, I have found the island, which is called Mel-
 ite.

34 And when he had said these things,
 he cast a bucket of water into the sea,
 and said, Behold, I tell you, I have found the island, which is called Mel-
 ite.
 35 And when he had said these things,
 he cast a bucket of water into the sea,
 and said, Behold, I tell you, I have found the island, which is called Mel-
 ite.

36 And when they had seen enough, they lighted the ship, and cast out the board into the sea.
 37 And when it was day, they knew
 the land: for they saw a certain creek with a shore, into the which
 they were driven; if it were possible,
 to throw in the ship.

38 And when they had taken up the board, they consulted how they should save themselves. And some said, we will swim, and we will save our lives.
 39 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have listened unto me, if I had spoken, and ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

40 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.
 41 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

42 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

43 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

44 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

45 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

46 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

47 And Paul standing in the midst
 of them, said, Men, ye should have
 listened unto me, if I had spoken, and
 ye should have saved your souls and
 the ship.

A. 26. 7. 1 one day the sixth wind blew, and we caught away before it. Paul I advised them to cast the board into the sea, and to save themselves.
 2 And when it was day, they knew
 the land: for they saw a certain creek with a shore, into the which
 to throw in the ship.

3 And when they had taken up the board, they consulted how they should save themselves. And some

Paul's apostleship.

A. D. 50. things neither have I written thee any for of new letter for me to die than that any man should make any proving and showing of himself.

I. COINTHIANS. X.

1 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and as some of them also murmured against his word.

Christians must flee idolatry.

16 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and as some of them also murmured against his word.

Of the Lord's supper.

26 Now as we eat of this bread and drink of this cup, we are united with the body and blood of Christ.

L. COINTHIANS. XI. XII.

1 And as each of us has his own cup, so each of us has his own portion of the bread and wine.

Of spiritual gifts.

1 Now as to spiritual gifts, brethren, I want you to know that every one of us has some.

A.B. 26. 12 For by one spirit are we all baptiz'd into one body...

13 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body...

14 If the whole body were one, and had one hearing...

15 And if they were all one member, how can we be one body...

16 But now we see through a glass, in a dark manner...

17 For now we know in part, and we prophesy in part...

18 And now faith, hope, and charity, these three shall abide...

19 Charity never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail...

20 Charity is more than knowledge, and more than riches...

21 Charity is more than faith, and more than hope...

22 Charity is more than knowledge, and more than riches...

23 Charity is more than faith, and more than hope...

24 Charity is more than knowledge, and more than riches...

speakest not here, as if not easily persuaded; thinketh to evil...

13 Charity never faileth; but whether there be prophecies...

14 Charity is more than knowledge, and more than riches...

15 And if they were all one member, how can we be one body...

16 But now we see through a glass, in a dark manner...

17 For now we know in part, and we prophesy in part...

18 And now faith, hope, and charity, these three shall abide...

19 Charity never faileth; but whether there be prophecies...

20 Charity is more than knowledge, and more than riches...

21 Charity is more than faith, and more than hope...

22 Charity is more than knowledge, and more than riches...

23 Charity is more than faith, and more than hope...

24 Charity is more than knowledge, and more than riches...

A.B. 26. 13 My spirit prefereth, but my understanding is unprofitable...

14 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

15 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

16 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

17 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

18 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

19 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

20 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

21 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

22 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

23 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

24 If I should say in tongues, I will say by the spirit, and I will say by the understanding...

for it is a shame for women to speak in the church...

14 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

15 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

16 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

17 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

18 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

19 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

20 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

21 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

22 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

23 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...

24 As the church is the body of Christ, which is saved by his blood...
