The general resurrection.

REVELATION, XXI.

The new Jerusalem.

A.D. 96. should be fulfilled; and that he must be hounded a little sooner.

4 And I saw ^{the} thrones, and they sat upon them: and judgment was given unto them: and they had judgment over them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the image of the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reign in the earth.

5 And the rest of them were killed again until the thousand years were fulfilled.

6 Blessed and holy is the first resurrection: and blessed are they which partake of it. 7 And when the thousand years are past, Satan shall be loosed out of prison.

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations, gathering them to war; one quarter of the earth, Gog and Magog, shall he gather together; and he shall muster him of the earth, and he shall assemble them in the center of the earth; and he shall reign over them.

9 And they went up on the camp of the saints, and conquered the camp of the saints above, and cast down fire and fire from heaven down from God out of his honor.

10 And the devil that deceived them, who came to the lake of fire and brimstone, and the beast, and the false prophet are, and shall torment them for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face shone light, and his garment was white as snow.

12 There was found no lie in his mouth, and he was clothed with a robe which was white, and his name was called Faithful and True.

13 And I saw the dead, small and great, come up, and stand before the throne:

14 And books were opened: and another book was opened: and another book was opened: and another book was opened: and the dead, both small and great, were written in them: and they were judged every man according to his works.

15 And whenever was not found writing in the book of life, it was cast into the lake of fire.

16 This is the second death.

17 And whosoever was not found writing in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw a new city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them: and their kingdom shall have no end.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying,

5 And the city had no need of the sun, or of the moon, to shine in it: for the
