

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Publisher's introduction	7
Author's preface.....	9
Introduction	18
CHAPTER I. Personal sketch of Hon. William McKinley by Hon. John Sherman.....	27
CHAPTER II. Ancestry—Youth in the army—Student of law— Prosecuting attorney—Home life.....	42
CHAPTER III. McKinley in Congress—The rapid growth of his national reputation—Became the champion of protection— First in a National Convention.....	63
CHAPTER IV. First experience as a candidate for the Presi- dency—Trying times and personal triumph in Chicago—Pros- perity under the McKinley law—Gerrymandered out of Con- gress—Governor of Ohio.....	77
CHAPTER V. McKinley's career in few words—The charm of his personal character—His habits of labor—Devotion to friends and family.....	99
CHAPTER VI. McKinley not a man of one idea—His superior dis- tinction as a Protectionist has caused him to be erroneously accused of exclusive devotion to that subject—The great range of his public speeches and addresses—A superb tribute from General Grosvenor, giving a list of subjects.....	121

CONTENTS

13

	PAGE
CHAPTER VII. McKinley on Civic Patriotism—Address at Rochester, N. Y.—Studying conditions of government— Public opinion the basis—Zeal after election—The people's business—Duty of business men—Manufacturing interests— Our best market—An extraordinary spectacle.....	134
CHAPTER VIII. The lessons of heroic lives—McKinley a patriot —Oration—Piety and patriotism—Lessons of heroism—Influ- ences of Chautauqua—A fighting patriot—The grand review —A generous eulogy—Illustrious names.....	167
CHAPTER IX. McKinley and money—Nominated for Governor —The sound money battle—A full dollar—Not willing to chance it—Two yard-sticks—Struggle against inflation—A high compliment—Opposed to unlimited coinage—Treasury Report.....	178
CHAPTER X. The Money Standard questions have been settled in and by the Republican party—Silver legislation in brief— How the country was saved from the silver standard—John Sherman and William McKinley have marched together— The Hon. Charles Emory Smith's exposition of this question —The unexampled supply of gold is solving the money ques- tions for the people and abolishing its issue	194
CHAPTER XI. William McKinley as a campaigner—Speaking to fifteen millions of people—Making one thousand speeches— Constitution of iron—Wondrous vitality—Magnetic power— Excellent memory—Good listener—Making converts— Policy of Protection the hope of America.....	226
CHAPTER XII. McKinley's advice to boys—The enterprising boy—Interviewing Major McKinley—Boy's own account of

it—Painting up the town—Looks like Napoleon—Fatherly advice—An important question.....	PAGE 241
CHAPTER XIII. The contrasted conditions—Between Republican protection and prosperity and Democratic meddling, disorganizing industry and forcing hard times, displayed in speeches by McKinley in 1892 and in 1895—A plea in Boston for protection and prosperity.....	253
CHAPTER XIV. Some views on public questions—Humorous speeches—The feeder of Great Britain—A leap in the dark—Give the officials scope—Importance of agriculture—Arbitration—Respect and retrospect—Let England take care of herself.....	296
CHAPTER XV. Liberty and Labor.....	313
CHAPTER XVI. Mrs. McKinley at home—The great Protectionist's wife—Strong despite physical weakness—Shares all her husband's burdens—"Ever happy when surrounded by friends, children and roses.".....	339
CHAPTER XVII. McKinley on the day of his nomination—His good nerve and thoughtful courtesies—He was quiet through the storm and gave the good news with kisses to his wife and mother.....	355
CHAPTER XVIII. Major McKinley acknowledges and accepts his nomination.....	371
CHAPTER XIX. Salient extracts from Major McKinley's addresses to representative delegations.....	407
CHAPTER XX. McKinley's inaugural address—A lofty appeal to all patriotic Americans for the prompt solution of the great and pressing problems of the National Government.....	430

CHAPTER XXI. The Philadelphia convention — President McKinley endorsed by his unanimous nomination for a second term—Governor Roosevelt the choice for Vice-President.....	PAGE 446
CHAPTER XXII. Senator Lodge's speech—Permanent Chairman of the Republican Convention outlines the position of Republican party—A scholarly effort and a concise statement.....	456
CHAPTER XXIII. Republican Platform of 1900—Document of remarkable scope and certainty—Defines the party's position on every issue—Adopted as read	472
CHAPTER XXIV. McKinley's later days—Elected and inaugurated President a second time—Triumphal tour through the South and the West, ended by Mrs. McKinley's illness.....	483
CHAPTER XXV. President McKinley's assassination—President's visit to the Pan-American Exposition—His great speech—Shot by Anarchist Leon Czolgosz—A week in the balance	487
CHAPTER XXVI. Death of President McKinley—Dies peacefully at 2:15 A. M., Saturday, September 14—Fond farewell of husband and wife—Last words, "Nearer, My God, to Thee.".....	512
CHAPTER XXVII. Burial of President McKinley—Private Funeral Services—Lying in state at Buffalo and Washington—Interment at Canton.....	518
CHAPTER XXVIII. Trial and execution of assassin.....	533
CHAPTER XXIX. Theodore Roosevelt—Sketch of his life.....	539

ILLUSTRATIONS.

	PAGE
Theodore Roosevelt } Wm. McKinley }	Frontispieces
McKinley at Eighteen.....	21
McKinley When Elected to Congress.....	22
Hon. Wm. McKinley's Residence.....	39
Hon. Wm. McKinley in His Study.....	40
Mrs. William McKinley.....	57
Mrs. McKinley's Room.....	58
Hon Wm. McKinley's Father.....	75
Hon. Wm. McKinley's Mother.....	76
Residence of the Late J. A. Stanton, Mrs. McKinley's Father...	93
First M. E. Church at Canton.....	94
The White House.....	111
Admiral George Dewey.....	112
Department of State.....	129
Convention Hall, St. Louis, Mo.....	130
Republican Convention Hall at Philadelphia.....	147
Hon. John Sherman.....	148
Hon. Thomas B. Reed.....	165
Hon. Chauncey M. Depew.....	166
Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay.....	183
Hon. Stephen B. Elkins.....	184
Hon. Chas. Emory Smith.....	201
Hon. Levi P. Morton.....	202
Hon. Mark Hanna.....	219
Hon. C. H. Grosvenor.....	220
Hon. Geo. F. Hoar.....	237

ILLUSTRATIONS

17

	PAGE
Hon. W. B. Allison.....	238
Hon. Benjamin Harrison.....	255
Hon. R. Proctor.....	256
Late Vice-President Garret A. Hobart.....	273
Senator Wm. E. Mason.....	274
Senator Cushman K. Davis.....	291
Senator Henry C. Lodge.....	292
Andrew Carnegie.....	309
Hon. Hazen S. Pingree.....	310
Hon. E. O. Wolcott.....	327
Hon. John Wanamaker.....	328
Hon. Lyman J. Gage.....	345
Hon. John D. Long.....	346
Gen. Lew Wallace.....	363
Ex-Secretary of State Day.....	364
Hon. William P. Frye.....	381
S. P. Dole, Ex-President Hawaiian Republic.....	382
Murat Halstead.....	399
President and His War Cabinet.....	400
Military Heroes of Santiago.....	417
Naval Heroes of Santiago.....	418

