• To know the country to its farthest veins,
Find out its heart; there all its being tends.
The mighty mart throbs only with the pulses
Of the wide land, which pours its streams of life
And strength into its bosom.™

---

My purpose in this book has been to draw the Great Metropolis with its lights and shades, in a series of graphic papers: to sketch New York as I have seen it. From original and reliable sources I have drawn my information and material for these sketches. I have selected representative men, and have attempted fairly to present their characteristics, and usually as their friends would wish to see them. Of things and places, I have drawn from my own knowledge or observation.
