This is the first translation ever published of a novel by Paul Heyse, who ranks as the most famous of the younger German novelists, and it opens an entire new field to English readers. The "Paradise" of the book is a club of Munich artists and their friends; and the strong, unconventional characters, the charming picture of their intellectual Bohemia, and the perfect freshness of this new circle to the most hackneyed novel-reader, would of themselves make the story eagerly read, even without the strongly-wrought plot. It is, in short, a perfect study of a most dramatic phase of life, which has never been so treated by a novelist before; and "In Paradise" should have in this country the great success which has attended its several editions in Germany. It is not the novel of a day, but a real classic, ranking among the best books of contemporary fiction-writers.

The Homes of America.

WITH

ONE HUNDRED AND THREE ILLUSTRATIONS ON WOOD.

Edited by Mrs. MARTHA J. LAMB,

Author of "The History of the City of New York."

"The Homes of America" is a superb holiday volume, of quarto size, exquisitely printed on toned paper, containing engravings of the highest Art-character, illustrating the homes of America in the Colonial, the Later, and the Modern Periods. It will have a leading place among the holiday books of the season.

Quarto, cloth, extra gilt, price, $6. Also in full morocco.

Landscape in American Poetry.

By LUCY LARCOM.

ILLUSTRATED FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY J. APPLETON BROWN.

Large 8vo, cloth, extra gilt, price, $4. Also in full morocco.

The illustrations in the volume are of remarkable freshness, and illustrate, so far as practicable, the actual scenes described in the verses of BRYANT, LONGFELLOW, LOWELL, WHITTIER, and others of our poets. The engravings, therefore, apart from their striking and artistic beauty, have associations that add greatly to their value and interest.

The publishers feel justified in saying that the contemporaneous art of no country has ever been so adequately represented in a single volume as our American Painters are in this work, while the engravings are equal in execution to the finest examples of wood-engraving produced here or abroad.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The richest and in many ways the most notable of fine art books is 'American Painters,' just published, with unstinted liberality in the making. Eighty-three examples of the work of American artists, reproduced in the very best style of wood-engraving, and printed with rare skill, constitute the chief purpose of the book; while the text which accompanies them, the work of Mr. George W. Sheldon, is a series of bright and entertaining biographical sketches of the artists, with a running commentary—critical, but not too critical—upon the peculiarities of their several methods, purposes, and conceptions."—New York Evening Post.

"The volume gives good evidence of the progress of American art. It shows that we have deft hands and imaginative brains among painters of the country, and it shows, moreover, that we have publishers who are liberal and cultured enough to present their works in a handsome and luxurious form that will make them acceptable. 'American Painters' will adorn the table of many a drawing-room where art is loved, and where it is made still dearer from the fact that it is native."—New York Express.

"It is at once a biographical dictionary of artists, a gallery of pen portraits and of beautiful scenes, sketched by the painters and multiplied by the engraver. It is in all respects a work of art, and will meet the wants of a large class whose tastes are in that direction."—New York Observer.

"One of the most delightful volumes issued from the press of this country."—New York Daily Graphic.

"Outside and inside it is a thing of beauty. The text is in large, clear type, the paper is of the finest, the margins broad, and the illustrations printed with artistic care. The volume contains brief sketches of fifty prominent American artists, with examples from their works. Some idea of the time and labor expended in bringing out the work may be gathered from the fact that to bring it before the public in its present form cost the publishers over $12,000."—Boston Evening Transcript.

"This book is a notable one, and among the many fine art books it will rank as one of the choicest, and one of the most elegant, considered as an ornament or parlor decoration. The engravings are in the highest style known to art. Mr. Sheldon has accompanied the illustrations with a series of very entertaining biographical sketches. As far as possible, he has made the artists their own interpreters, giving their own commentaries upon art and upon their purposes in its practice instead of his own."—Boston Post.

"'American Painters' consists of biographical sketches of fifty leading American artists, with eighty-three examples of their works, engraved on wood with consummate skill, delicacy of touch, and appreciation of distinctive manner. It is a gallery of contemporary American art."—Philadelphia Press.

"This work is one of surpassing interest, and of marvelous typographical and illustrative beauty."—Philadelphia Item.

"The whole undertaking is a noble one, illustrative of the best period of American art, and as such deserves the attention and support of the public."—Chicago Tribune.

THE
TURNER GALLERY.

A SERIES OF

One Hundred and Twenty Engravings on Steel,

FROM THE WORKS OF

J. M. W. TURNER, R. A.

Each plate is accompanied by historical and critical remarks, compiled from authentic sources, so that the whole affords a most instructive guide to the study of Turner's unrivaled pictures.

Two folio volumes. Price, half morocco, $32.00; full morocco, $36.00.

TURNER, the world-renowned English painter, is not only acknowledged to be the greatest landscape-painter England has produced, but he is, by general consent, placed next to, if not by the side of, Claude Lorraine, the most distinguished of the great Continental masters in landscape-art. Turner's paintings, being remarkable for breadth of effect and of shadow, and brilliant representation of light, are peculiarly adapted for engraving. It is, indeed, remarkable that, although the most vivid colorist of modern times, no painter's works are so susceptible of reproduction by the graver.
